Facts and Circumstances Discussion

Form 990 Schedule A Part II Section C Line 17a

History: Panthera was incorporated in April 2006 and during 2006, Panthera served mainly as a funding agency to other tax exempt organizations; had an unpaid board of directors comprised of three individuals; no employees; and had three donors (board members or related to board members). In April 2008 the core scientists and support staff joined Panthera at which time the day-to-day direction of the organization began to be managed by a full time management team. Changes in program direction started to be made with a greater focus on the design of program content directly by Panthera to achieve specific conservation objectives. The 2009 year was the first full year of operations of programs in numerous countries covering the major big wild cats (Tigers, Lions, Jaguars and Snow Leopards). Program expenses were $5.325M of which grants to other organizations amounted to $2.158M (41%); however, the nature of the grants became more of the grantee performing such research and conservation activities as set forth by Panthera to dovetail with our overall program strategies. As the shift from being a funding agency to an operating entity started to take place, Panthera started to receive donations from non-board and related individuals. The 2010 year, for all practicable purposes, was the first full year of true operations geared to predetermined scientific goals by individual species program, subprogram and country including the individual steps and related costs to achieve the desired objective. As Panthera moved further away from its start up stage, the focus also changed to expand our donor base from a few large donors to a broader base, and enhance our communication/education process beyond the scientific community to the general public. During 2010 the full time Director of Communications position was created; our two year strategy to enhance our communications world-wide, name recognition and conservation programs was started; significant changes to our website were undertaken; conservation programs were significantly expanded; Panthera registered in all states that had registration requirements for soliciting of donations; and, added three additional board members (bringing the total to seven board members). In addition, Panthera obtained a controlling and economic interest in Panthera Wildlife Trust Ltd. which was formed as a not-for-profit entity located in the United Kingdom to expand potential donations for wild cat conservation.

Present: In 2011, communications of the world-wide situation and status of major wild cats was a major focus aimed toward the general public; other environmental organizations; and, governments and governmental agencies in the US and approximately 55 foreign countries in which wild cats reside. We interfaced Facebook, Tweeter, YouTube, Flickr and Pinterest into our communications process with our scientific, governmental and general public community, expanded our monthly newsletters, engaged with global media and top-tier broadcast and print outlets to increase awareness of the plight of big wild cats and how people and other organizations can help. Our expenditures on program services in 2011 reached $6.9 million which made Panthera the largest non-profit entity dedicated solely to the conservation of wild cats.

The education of the public as to the status of wild cats is of major importance as the support of the public is paramount to the scientific information being converted to conservation measures. Our website had 305,000 visitors in 2011 with individual page views aggregating 837,000 pages. Our monthly Panthera Newsletter is distributed to 15,400 individuals. Our communications through Facebook and Twitter are received by approximately 20,400 individuals. In 2011, Panthera and its conservation programs was the main focus of: 1) 20 significant events (lectures, exhibits, film festivals, screenings, etc.); 2) 8 major media coverage programs (CBS "60 Minutes"; National Geographic WILD Air "Lost Land of the Tiger"; etc.); 3) over 150 articles in magazines, newspapers, local radio and TV shows; 4) approximately 15 wild cat scientific conservation articles authored by Panthera personnel; and, 5) a major conservation book, "Carnivores of the World", was completed and published by Panthera's President. Conservation programs for wild cats were conducted in the US and 55 countries around the world where we work closely with the governments, governmental agencies and local populations to conserve the wild cats and their environment. In addition, Panthera provided 35 scholarship and research awards to individuals throughout the world to assist young wildlife biologists in completing their advance degrees and to promote scholarly research on wild cats.

We believe that our program services and benefit to the general public throughout the world clearly demonstrates the charitable nature of our organization. We believe that our increasing amount of contributions from the general public demonstrates that our organization is funded by ever increasing number of individuals concerned with the preservation of the wild cat species and that our programs are efficient and effective. Accordingly, we believe that the facts and circumstances support our continued status as a "public charity".

Panthera makes grants via two processes, one is our open application grant programs, the other is granting to established partners in conservation. These processes are used for all grants and scholarship awards, both domestic and international ("grants"). We accept applications to our grant programs two times per year (Jan-Mar and Jul-Sep). An applicant is eligible to apply if their project proposal meets the criteria listed on our website for one of our grant programs. Each grant proposal is submitted to Panthera via an online grant system. The grant system is automated and automatically notifies the Program Manager who sends a grant application receipt to the applicant. The grant proposals are reviewed internally by our Staff Members consisting of the President and the Program Manager. This initial review process removes proposals which do not satisfy the application criteria and selects proposals for further review. From this point, all proposals are reviewed by at least one and typically two Panthera staff members. Our staff members will, if deemed appropriate, utilize the external members of our Cat Advisory Council and other external experts to assist us in those areas where we may not have the necessary level of expertise to fully evaluate the grant application. In the case of the Small Cat Action Fund, all proposals are additionally reviewed by the Co-Chairs of the IUCN Cat Specialist Group. Following the review process, the funding decision is made by the staff members taking into consideration available funding contained in our budget and prior commitments. In the case of established conservation partners we solicit a specific project proposal based on criteria and review the proposal response internally. The funding decision is made internally by our staff members. Each approved grant recipient signs a contract regarding the grant award. The grant contract will, among other things, specify the term, amount of grant, will require that the project involves exclusively charitable, educational or scientific activities that are described in Section 170(c)(2)(B) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"); and set forth reporting requirements and accountability over funds. As part of the grant process we require the following information: Organization's tax exempt IRS letter; if a foreign entity, the comparable letter from that country. Once a contract is executed the funds are sent to the grant recipient via check or wire transfer following the normal cash disbursement process. A central file is maintained on our shared server relating to all approved grants and a separate server file is set up for each granting period. The server will include a spreadsheet of all grants approved for the application period. In addition, grant specific information is included in the server file which consists among other things, of, 1) grant application, 2) grant approval letter, 3) contract (if applicable), 4) budget, and 5) results reporting data. Each of the approved grants is included within our grant database, which reflects the due dates of each grant's six month and annual report for follow-up by the Program Manager. The grantee's final report requires comparison of the actual expense to the approved budget (the details of which are evaluated as part of the approval process). The open application grant recipients are required to submit a six month narrative report using the guidelines six month and final technical report template on the 6th month of the grant. All grantees are required to submit a final financial report and a final narrative report which are due by the 14th month anniversary date of the

PART 1, LINE 3 - Panthera's Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors seeks to provide CEO compensation that is fairly consistent with prevailing rates at similar nonprofit organizations for comparable job functions consistent with the annual budget approved by the Board of Directors. A long term compensation arrangement is in place for the CEO based on a written employment contract established by the Board of the Directors and CEO at the time of initial employment. The CEO's compensation is established annually based on job performance, salaries paid by comparable tax exempt organizations based on publicly available information, including other organization's Form 990 filings, discussions with others with knowledge of salary levels, and such other information as deemed appropriate to arrive at an appropriate salary. The Compensation Committee, after the review of such information, establishes the CEO overall salary level taking into consideration base pay and other salary benefits

PART 1 LINE 4B - Effective January 1, 2010, Panthera became the sponsor of a non qualified deferred compensation plan ("457(f)"). FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4D

Lions - Panthera combines an understanding of lion ecology in human dominated landscapes with techniques that provide local communities with the ability and incentive to avoid conflict with lions. In addition, Panthera's objective is to create a Pan-African safe travel corridor for lions, maintaining the species in key landscapes and fostering connections between those landscapes.

Snow Leopards - Panthera developed a state-of-the-art global range map and database of snow leopard habitat and helps delineate critical conservation units and identify prevailing threats. Using the database to target populations that require conservation, Panthera's efforts are geared towards a range-wide approach in conserving the snow leopards.

Other Species - Our cougar program encompasses the California and Teton Mountain landscapes with a view of securing landscapes, safe travel corridors, and developing workable solutions for cougar-human conflicts. Our Iranian Cheetah program focuses on the mitigation of immediate threats to cheetahs and their prey of the critically endangered cheetah population in the Islamic Republic of Iran, which is the only remaining cheetah population in the entire Asiatic range. Panthera is conducting a long-term telemetry-based study on leopards in the Phinda Game Reserve in South Africa comparing a protected population adjacent to regions where the species is heavily hunted in order to develop regional conservation recommendations.

In addition, Panthera's Landscape Program, using the Geographic Identification System ("GIS"), undertakes sophisticated geographic and mapping analysis across the entire geographic range in four continents utilized by the major wild cat species.

FORM 990 PART VI, SECTION B, LINES 12A-C

Panthera requires that its Directors, Officers, Key Employees, and other "Individuals": (a) make decisions solely on the basis of a desire to promote the best interests of Panthera; (b) avoid potential or actual conflicts of interest when acting on behalf of Panthera. Similarly, the Individuals are prohibited from using their respective positions in Panthera or information obtained relating to Panthera in order to achieve a direct or indirect personal benefit, financial or otherwise.

"Potential conflict of interest" will be deemed to occur when the Individual's personal or private interest might lead an independent observer to reasonably question whether the Individual's actions or decisions on behalf of Panthera are influenced by personal considerations, financial or otherwise.

Supplemental Information to Form 990 or 990-EZ

Complete to provide information for responses to specific questions on
Form 990 or 990-EZ or to provide any additional information.

► Attach to Form 990 or 990-EZ.

An "actual conflict of interest" will be deemed to occur where it reasonably appears that decisions made on behalf of Panthera by an Individual were influenced by the Individual's: (a) direct or indirect personal or financial interest in an entity that transacts business with or competes against Panthera; or (b) receipt of gifts, entertainment or other favors from any individual or entity that does business with or competes against Panthera.

A key employee is one who is or is perceived by others to be in a position to influence business decisions (such as decisions to make grants or awards, purchase goods or services, or decisions that affect/may affect the course of a business transaction including program expenditure approval or the affairs of Panthera or any of its affiliates). Key employees must make the same disclosures, at the same frequency, as the directors and officers. This policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable laws governing conflicts of interest for directors of nonprofit corporations in the event this policy and statutes are inconsistent, the statutes will control.

Disclosure of conflicts of interest:

Directors, officers, and key employees have a duty to disclose the existence of any material facts about any personal relationship having a personal or financial interest in a proposed transaction contract or compensation arrangement with Panthera. The interest must be disclosed before the transaction, contract, or arrangement is reviewed, authorized, approved, or ratified. The personal interest may arise because the director, officer, or key employee or an immediate family member of the director, officer, or key employee has a relationship or personal financial interest in a proposed transaction, contract, or compensation agreement ("immediate family" means the director, officer, manager, or key employee's spouse or children, or individual(s) residing in the director's, officers, or key employee's home).

Compliance Review:

Panthera's Corporate Secretary is responsible for circulating disclosure forms to directors, officers, and key employees and confirming on an annual basis that the forms are kept up to date and informing the board of directors of actual or potential conflicts of interest.

Enforcing the Conflicts of Interest Policy:

Following any disclosure of a potential conflict of interest by a director or officer, the board of directors will review the disclosure and determine whether a conflict exists. The board of directors then may or may not authorize or approve the proposed transaction or other matter as fair and reasonable by a vote without counting the vote or votes of such interested person or persons.

Following any disclosure of a potential conflict of interest by employees, including key employees, the Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible for determining the proper way for Panthera to handle decisions which involve employee conflicts of interest. The Chief Executive Officer shall report to the board at least annually concerning employee conflicts of interest which have been disclosed and contracts and transactions involving employee conflicts which the Chief Executive Officer has approved.

Complete to provide information for responses to specific questions on
Form 990 or 990-EZ or to provide any additional information.

The person with a conflict may be present for or participate in the discussion of the proposed transaction or other matter if deemed appropriate by the chairperson of the meeting or by the board of directors or, in case of employees, the Chief Executive Officer.

Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy:

If the board of directors has reasonable cause to believe that a director, officer, or employee has failed to disclose a potential/actual conflict of interest, it will inform the individual of the basis for the belief and afford the individual the opportunity to explain the failure to disclose. The board may take whatever follow-up action it deems necessary and, at its option, may void a transaction, contract, or arrangement where a potential conflict of interest exists that has not been disclosed.

Annual Statements:

Each director, officer, and key employee will annually sign the disclosure form and the certification form that affirms that the director, officer, or key employee has:

- A. Received a copy of Panthera's conflicts of interest policy
- B. Read and understands the policy;
- C. Agrees to comply with the policy; and,
- D. Understands that Panthera is a charitable organization and that in order to maintain its tax exempt status, it must engage primarily in activities that accomplish one or more of its tax exempt purposes.
- E. Is in compliance with the policy other than actual or potential conflicts of interest that may exist and have been disclosed to the corporate secretary or the board of directors

FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B LINE 15A-B

Panthera's Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors evaluates each officer or key employee's individual duties, responsibilities, educational background, work experience, and past performance (if applicable) to set fair rates of compensation. Panthera seeks to provide compensation that is fairly consistent with prevailing rates at similar nonprofit organizations for comparable job functions consistent with the annual budget approved by the Board of Directors. Under Panthera's bylaws Board members shall not receive compensation for any services rendered in such capacity, but may be reimbursed for reasonable and customary expenses incurred in connection therewith. A compensation arrangement for the CEO is based on a written employment contract established by the CEO in conjunction with the board at the time of initial employment. All officer's and key employee's compensation is established annually based on salaries paid by comparable tax exempt organizations based on publicly available information, including other organization's Form 990 filings, and such other information as deemed appropriate. The Compensation Committee, after the review of such information, establishes the CEO, President, CFO, and Vice President salary levels annually.
