The That's My Farmer SNAP Incentive Program is a partnership with farmers markets to provide customers with federal food stamp benefits an incentive to spend those benefits on fresh foods. In 2011, we served 1703 SNAP customers at five farmers' markets. Customers spent $56,648 in SNAP benefits at participating markets, supporting small Oregon farms and our local economy.

Our Food Literacy program hosts community events to provide the public information and resources about local farms, fisheries and food businesses. In 2011, we hosted four major food literacy events, plus two community organizing meetings focused on creating a stronger food system. We conducted extensive public outreach and created two comprehensive community food assessments giving the public an in-depth look at the issues impacting our food system.
