Funds are wired to our account in Burundi. The office staff, including the Director, administrators and social workers account for the funds and maintain distribution records. Periodic financial reports from the Burundi office are provided to the US president and treasurer. An independent audit of the Burundi financial records is performed annually and reported to the US board.

Recipients of sponsorship funds or houses are profiled by our social workers and home administrator to provide a needs assessment prior to connecting a widow with a sponsor or providing a home.
