Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Provide charitable support to orphanages, schools and humanitarian aide organizations in Haiti. Expand awareness for the challenges that Haiti is facing and specifically to increase the public's awareness of the orphan epidemic in Haiti.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported4a (Code _____) (Expenses $ 250,435. including grants of $ 164,043.) (Revenue $ _____)

Chances for Children operates a family style creche located at Delmas 75 in Port au Prince, Haiti which provides a home to orphaned children waiting for adoption. The creche has capacity for up to 20 children and has a staff of 18 full-time and two part-time employees providing a high caregiver to child ratio. An English-speaking preschool teacher teaches the children and caretakers are encouraged to engage the children in age-appropriate developmental play. The children have access to a local pediatrician and a thorough medical screening as well as lab tests are performed on all children prior to admitting them to the creche. All children are tested for HIV, VDRL, Sickie Cell, Hepatitis and TB, and medical summaries are provided to adoptive parents. In 2011 $250,435 of expenses were incurred to operate the 4b (Code _____) (Expenses $ 77,664. including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ 80,671.)

Chances for Children helps support the adoption process of children under the care of orphanages in Haiti by interfacing with the general public and adoption agencies who represent families who are interested in international adoption. In 2011 $77,664 of expenses were incurred to assist with the adoptions of children from orphanages in Haiti. These expenses included legal fees, travel expenses, meals, lodging, postage & shipping, printing & publications as well as wages and payroll costs for the organization's staff who helped with the adoptions. Chances for Children helped complete 2 adoptions in 2011.

4c (Code _____) (Expenses $ 48,636. including grants of $ 24,024.) (Revenue $ _____)

Chances for Children provides support to 3 orphanages in Haiti which provide care for 350 orphaned and abandoned children. These orphanages provide long term orphan care and receive very little in the way of support and exist on limited financial resources. Children at these sites live at the orphanage until they are 17 years of age. Most have been abandoned and adoption is not an option for them. The support Chances for Children provides includes monthly donations of food, clothing, mattresses, supplies, medicine and financial assistance. We also works with the orphanages to improve their conditions by helping them fund the construction of bathrooms, bedrooms and basic site improvements. Our staff makes bi-monthly visits to ensure child welfare at the orphanages. We also help develop enrichment programs aimed at interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

b. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

c. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

d. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: Process for determining compensation of the organization's CEO, directors, officers and key employees:

Compensation Approval Policies

A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

When approving compensation for directors, officers and employees, contractors, and any other compensation contract or arrangement, in addition to complying with the conflict of interest requirements and policies as well as the preceding paragraphs of this section, the board or a duly constituted compensation committee of the board shall also comply with the following additional requirements and procedures:

a. The terms of compensation shall be approved by the board or compensation committee prior to the first payment of compensation,

b. All members of the board or compensation committee who approve compensation arrangements must not have a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement as specified in IRS Regulation Section 53.4958-6(c)(iii), which generally requires that each board member or committee member approving a compensation arrangement between this organization and a "disqualified person" (as defined in Section 4958(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code and as amplified by Section 53.4958-3 of the IRS Regulations):

1. Is not the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement, or a family member of such person;

2. Is not in an employment relationship subject to the direction or control of the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement

3. Does not receive compensation or other payments subject to approval by the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement

4. Has no material financial interest affected by the compensation arrangement; and

5. Does not approve a transaction providing economic benefits to the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement, who in turn has approved or will approve a transaction providing benefits to the board or committee member.

Name of the organization

Chances for Children

Employer identification number

c. The board or compensation committee shall obtain and rely upon appropriate data as to comparability prior to approving the terms of compensation. Appropriate data may include the following:

1. Compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations, both taxable and tax-exempt, for functionally comparable positions. "Similarly situated" organizations are those of a similar size, purpose, and with similar resources

2. The availability of similar services in the geographic area of this organization

3. Current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms

4. Actual written offers from similar institutions competing for the services of the person who is the subject of the compensation arrangement

As allowed by IRS Regulation 4958-6, if this organization has average annual gross receipts (including contributions) for its three prior tax years of less than $1 million, the board or compensation committee will have obtained and relied upon appropriate data as to comparability if it obtains and relies upon data on compensation paid by three comparable organizations in the same or similar communities for similar services.

d. The terms of compensation and the basis for approving them shall be recorded in written minutes of the meeting of the board or compensation committee that approved the compensation. Such documentation shall include:

1. The terms of the compensation arrangement and the date it was approved

2. The members of the board or compensation committee who were present during debate on the transaction, those who voted on it, and the votes cast by each board or committee member

3. The comparability data obtained and relied upon and how the data was obtained

4. If the board or compensation committee determines that reasonable compensation for a specific position in this organization or for providing services under any other compensation arrangement with this organization is higher or lower than the range of comparability data obtained, the board or committee shall record in the minutes of the meeting the basis for its determination.

5.If the board or committee makes adjustments to comparability data due to geographic area or other specific conditions, these adjustments and the reasons for them shall be recorded in the minutes of the board or committee meeting.

6.Any actions taken with respect to determining if a board or committee member had a conflict of interest with respect to the compensation arrangement, and if so, actions taken to make sure the member with the conflict of interest did not affect or participate in the approval of the transaction (for example, a notation in the records that after a finding of conflict of interest by a member, the member with the conflict of interest was asked to, and did, leave the meeting prior to a discussion of the compensation arrangement and a taking of the votes to approve the arrangement).

7.The minutes of board or committee meetings at which compensation arrangements are approved must be prepared before the later of the date of the next board or committee meeting or 60 days after the final actions of the board or committee are taken with respect to the approval of the compensation arrangements. The minutes must be reviewed and approved by the board and committee as reasonable, accurate, and complete within a reasonable period thereafter, normally prior to or at the next board or committee meeting following final action on the arrangement by the board or committee.
