Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The College of Workers Compensation Lawyers, Inc was incorporated in the State of Tennessee as a non-profit corporation on January 16, 2007 to recognize outstanding practitioners of workers compensation law with the understanding that "Workers Compensation is a very important field of law, if not the most important. It touches more lives than any other field of law. It involves the payment of huge sums of money. The welfare of human beings, the success of business and the pocketbooks of consumers are affected daily by it. (Judge E R Mills, Singletary vs Mangham Construction, 418 So. 2d 1138 (Fla. 1st DCA, 1982)

The qualifications for election are

Candidates must have been in the field of Workers Compensation Law for at least 20 years and have proven to their peers, the bar, bench, and public that they possess the highest professional qualifications and ethical standards, the highest level of character, integrity, professional expertise and leadership, a commitment to fostering and furthering the objective of the College, sustained exceptional high quality professional services to clients, bar, bench and public, and significant evidence of scholarship, teaching, lecturing and/or distinguished public writing on Workers' Compensation or related fields of law.

In addition to the traits described above, a fellow is expected to display the following traits in the day-to-day practice of law. The list below is by no means complete, but it is provided to Sponsors and Candidates for their guidance in determining whether a candidate meets the expectation for a Fellow.

A Fellow is an individual who

Would stand out to newer attorneys as a model of professionalism in deportment and advocacy, a person who should be emulated,

Has earned the respect of the bench, opposing counsel and the legal community,

Displays civility in an adversarial relationship,

Avoids allowing ideological differences to affect civility in negotiations, litigation and other aspects of law practice,

Demonstrates an active interest in resolving issues,

Is a student of the law,

Has a thirst for knowledge in all areas of the law that affects the representation of such person's clients in Workers Compensation,

Actively participates in the State, local and/or National Bar, and

Has a reputation as an individual with broad knowledge and involvement in all aspects of Workers' Compensation law

The College focuses on two separate activities. The first is the co-sponsorship of continuing legal education seminars, which occur in conjunction with the induction dinner of the College, which generally occurs in March of each year. The second is a student writing competition, in which the winner receives an award at the annual induction dinner.

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

► File a separate application for each return.

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box ☒
 - If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form).
- Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.

Electronic filing (e-file). You can electronically file Form 8868 if you need a 3-month automatic extension of time to file (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T), or an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension of time. You can electronically file Form 8868 to request an extension of time to file any of the forms listed in Part I or Part II with the exception of Form 8870, Information Return for Transfers Associated With Certain Personal Benefit Contracts, which must be sent to the IRS in paper format (see instructions). For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).

A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension—check this box and complete Part I only ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns.
