Leadership for Educational Equity (LEE) is a 501(c)(4) nonprofit organization that was launched in 2007 to inspire, train and support Teach For America alumni and corps members to pursue public leadership by providing or connecting them to high impact volunteer and career opportunities in politics, policy, advocacy, and elected office and to increase the civic engagement of our members. Individuals interested in LEE's mission can choose to become a member of the organization. LEE offers its members opportunities to increase their civic engagement and pursue public leadership by: 1. Creating forums for learning about and discussing the political and policy landscape of local communities. LEE provides news about local and national education initiatives and organizations, community discussion forums for debating and sharing information with other members, calendars with a range of trainings and events, some of which are discounted or free for members, and information about member candidates running for office, including ways to support them. 2. Providing the information, skills, and experiences needed to run for office and win. LEE offers political development and mentor programs, weekend skill-building seminars, one-on-one support and coaching with experts and on-line modules on important topics like campaign fundraising. In addition, LEE provides critical campaign resources, including a list of preferred campaign vendors, district maps and campaign toolkits and templates. 3. Connecting members to fellowship opportunities and jobs. LEE has a job database with numerous roles in policy, politics, and advocacy. In addition, LEE offers several fellowship programs for members interested in policy careers or elected office and has employer and fellowship partnerships with dozens of organizations interested in recruiting LEE members. The website also offers on-line career assessments and career reflections for those in the early stages of choosing a career path. 4. Encouraging LEE members and Friends of LEE to connect with one another to increase their impact. LEE enables members to easily create communities of interest, communicate ideas and activities, mobilize volunteers, and raise money for causes and campaigns.

FIN-48 Disclosures in Audited Financial Statements		The Following FIN-48 Footnote is reproduced in the audited financial statements of Teach For America TFA follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement This standard provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the consolidated financial statements only if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority The standard also provides guidance on measurement, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure and, had no material impact on the accompanying consolidated financial statements The tax years ended 2008, 2009, and 2010 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes TFA has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, identify and report unrelated income, determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions
Audited Financial Statement Reconciliation		Leadership for Educational Equity does not receive its own standalone audited financial statements, its activities are included in the consolidated audited financial statements of its affiliated organization, Teach For America The reconciliations in Part XI, Part XII and Part XIII reconcile back to Leadership's financial activity in the audited financial statements on a standalone basis
