	Part I, Line 3	Compensation of the organization's top management officials. Steven Boyle was compensated by CHE, and James Reed was compensated by Northeast Health, Inc. through September 30, 2011 and by CHE starting October 1, 2011. The organization relied on Northeast Health, Inc. and CHE which used one or more of the following methods to establish compensation for these officials: - Compensation committee - Independent compensation consultant - Written employment contract - Compensation survey - Approval by the board or compensation committee. On an annual basis, the organization uses an independent compensation consultant to review the salaries for other executives and ensure such salaries are consistent with market salaries paid to similarly situated executives. In addition, a compensation committee reviews this information annually and it is then approved by the board or compensation committee. Finally, executives receive a written letter outlining the specifics of their compensation.
	Part I, Line 4b	Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan will provide benefits to certain key executive employees of SPHCS. The Trustee is Charles Schwab Trust Company. The plan type is a 457(f) plan funded through a Rabbi Trust.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Procedures to determine the organization's top management officials compensation are set forth in Schedule J, Part III. In addition, CHE's determination of compensation includes review by an independent compensation committee, which reviews and approves all elements of remuneration. The committee has an established compensation philosophy, which details the objects of market positioning and pay elements. The committee engages with external consultants to provide market data comparing the organization's roles to similarly sized health systems utilizing both title and job content comparisons. The committee reviews the market analysis, approves any salary adjustments for the executive population, considers both reasonableness and effectiveness of all remunerative programs and establishes the detailed performance expectations which are incorporated into the incentive plan. All of these discussions and decisions are documented through the provision of meeting minutes. The compensation of other officers and key employees of the organization are reviewed by an independent compensation consultant who reviews the salaries to ensure they are within market and market competitive. This is done on an annual basis, reviewed by either the organization's or a related organization's compensation committee and communicated to the other officers and key employees.
