Form 990 Part VII line 5 is from royalties for previous year's scientific publications related to the program and received from Oxford University Press and the ACS

Form 990 Part IX line 24 lists $75,000 as an investment expense. This money is largely composed ($74,429) from the ACS Investment Pool which closed in 2010. We simply reinvested that at Vanguard per ACS advice.

Form 990 Part XI line 5 shows other changes in net assets or fund balances. Again the ACS Investment Pool was closed and a similar investment was then opened with Vanguard. In this case the following is taken into account:

-$69.36 - when redeemed the ACS Investment Pool was less than estimated at beginning of year

+$32382.99 - the ACS Investment Pool share cost listed as of June 30, 2010

+$570.59 - an additional amount invested with Vanguard (relative to the amount redeemed from the ACS Investment Pool)

+199.58 - an unrealized gain at the end of year with Vanguard (relative to amount invested)
