Form 990EZ, Part III, Line 28Strongheart Fellowship Program Services Description (continued from Line 28)*In 2011, Strongheart Fellowship deepened and expanded its education and healing work with young people from Liberia and Uganda*Twenty instructors from the US, Europe, and Africa came to work with the young people in residence at the Strongheart House in Liberia.*The young people studied a range of subjects including Latin, yoga, math, music, and psychology. All of the young people's living expenses were covered by Strongheart so that they could concentrate entirely on their education and healing. During the course of 2011, five young people lived off campus to pursue additional education and their expenses were covered by Strongheart during their course of studies.*Educational institutions attended included the African Leadership Academy and the Liberian School for the Blind.*Additionally in 2011, Strongheart worked to develop a transition plan with each young person in the program to ensure their success post-program, ranging from researching school applications to writing plans for small businesses*Form 990EZ, Part III, Line 29*Next Right Thing Program Services Description (continued from Line 29)*In 2011, Strongheart supported young people in medical need through connecting them with resources for life-changing or life-saving medical care. One notable case was a young woman who was abducted by rebel forces in Uganda and badly injured who received massive facial reconstruction through our connections and applications for free medical care on her behalf. She was featured prominently in national and international media, sharing her story of hope and resilience - as well as acting as an advocate for other young people affected by the conflict in Northern Uganda
