Part V Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method, amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part I, Line 2: All grants must be used exclusively in furtherance of the charitable purposes of the organization and its supported organization. All grant applications must be made in accordance with guidelines established by the organization's Board of Directors and all grants made must be approved by the Board of Directors. Grants will only be made if the Board of Directors determines that such a grant furthers the charitable purposes of the organization. No grants may be made if such distribution would, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, endanger the organization's tax exemption or the deductibility of donations under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code. The organization maintains reasonable and prudent business records of all grant applications, donations, expenses and financial and regulatory matters. The grant process requires periodic written reports to the organization's Board of Directors concerning the use of the grant funds, including a final written report and an accounting of how grant funds were used. The Emmitsburg Province, as manager of the organization, also monitors distributions to ensure that the organization's resources are used exclusively to further its exempt purposes. Also, the organization's bylaws require that its Board of Directors include at least two Directors who are qualified to assess personally the extent to which the charitable purposes of the organization have been served by the grants made.

The money that is received through Grant Requests from the Bolivian Sisters are used for the good works for the following:

- * For the ongoing food, health, clothing and educational needs of the orphans in Cochibamba;
- * To assist in maintaining the students in a rural boarding school;
- * Supporting the technical training of street boys;
- * To maintain the Bolivian Province, i.e. expenses for the fifty-two Sisters, the Council members, the Father Director and the Secretary of the Province, the subventions given to the houses that do not have sufficient salaries to cover their cost of living,
- * Supporting over 400 students of EPARU, St. Ignatius Home, Amanecer and Solomon Klein. (EPARU is the work of Sister Mary Gerald McCloskey on the rivers of Trinidad. It is a rural pastoral work in the Beni) (E = equipo team, PA = pastoral, RU = rural).

Below is a special story of God's love for His Children, big and small:

San Vicente School is open for children from the different houses of Amanecer who are not yet ready for the regular schools as well as other children in need - some who live in the jails with their parents, others who come from home situations where they can't enter a regular school because of a lack of documents or financial ability to pay for the required books and physically handicapped children. The school also supports the education of students studying at ATENDI (a center for those with physical and mental disabilities) through the provision of classes within that center.

For the Day of the Child, a surprising invitation arrived, asking eight children, chosen according to their age, studies and economic status, to take a day trip to Santa Cruz with the airline Aviation of Bolivia (BOA). The children who were chosen spent the night in the school under the supervision of the Principal so that the following day they could be at the airport at 5:00 A.M. It was a night full of excitement and happiness. During the trip, the group of students from San Vincente de Paul demonstrated excellent behavior and responsibility. Together with the students from other schools, they visited places of interest within the city of Santa Cruz and returned to Cochabamba in the late afternoon. The parents and Amanecer educators waited to meet the children on their return from school, ending an amazing trip that seemed like a dream.

In April, a new child with disabilities and total paralysis (he can only move his head) enrolled in the school. Despite his physical limitations, he has an incredible strength of will and a great desire to succeed in his studies. He has shown special talent for math and is able to do the work holding a pencil in his mouth. Despite his difficulties, this child is a great example for all the students because of his spirit and commitment to a positive life.

Core Form Part VI, Line 11: The full Board of Directors receives a copy of the completed Form 990 via e-mail and is given the opportunity to discuss and ask any questions. Thereafter, staff prepares the final Form 990 taking into account their input.

Also, an overview and presentation of the Form 990 is given at its annual meeting of the Board. A copy of the final Form 990 is provided to them before it is filed.

Core Form Part VI, Line 12: The full Board of Directors regularly monitors any conflicts of interest which may arise in accordance with its conflict of interest policy and will take such action to enforce the policy as is necessary. The Emmitsburg Province, as manager of the organization, also exercises diligence in monitoring and acting on any potential conflicts.

Core Form Part VI, Lines 13-14: The full Board of Directors adopted substantial document retention and destruction and whistle blower policies at its annual meeting on October 26, 2009 and those policies are in effect and enforced. The policies are reviewed annually.

Core Form Part VI, Line 15: The Organization has no employees. It entered into a Management Services Agreement with the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's Emmitsburg Province to provide day-to-day management support. The Emmitsburg Province does not, at this time, receive any compensation for its services but is reimbursed for its expenses incurred in providing the management of services. The Emmitsburg Province's expenses are reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors.

Core Form Part VI, Line 19: The Organization will make its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public upon reasonable written request.
