Additionally, the Foundation's Vice President of the board of directors conducted a site visit to Funazucar for a two week period during 2011 as well as site visit in January 2012. The frequent contact the foundation's officers maintain with Funazucar and site visits demonstrated grant monies have been used for their intended purposes.

The Diamond Ward Memorial Scholarship

The Diamond Ward Memorial Scholarship has been established to honor Diamond Ward, who was a special person who overcame numerous obstacles in her young life. Diamond had medical and mental disabilities, and because of these serious complications and her family circumstances, became a ward of the State. Despite her hardships, her positive attitude touched the hearts of many people. Diamond made the world a better place with her infectious smile and spirit.

Scholarship Eligibility Requirements:

1. This fund is to go towards an applicant who has done community service and/or other humanitarian work to better our global world for fellow human beings. The monies will cover 100% of one semester's tuition.
2. Submit an enclosed completed application along with two letters of recommendation from non-family members.
3. Application should also include a typed essay (500 words or less) on why this student feels he or she is deserving of this scholarship: (Ex.: What have you done to better our world through humanitarian efforts? What will you do to inspire & motivate others to be of service to people in need? How will you maintain your commitment & passion towards these goals?)

This scholarship will be awarded to a student who meets the above eligibility requirements. A committee will review all of the applications to determine a recipient.

Please submit your completed application form, along with two letters of recommendation, and typed essay to the Admissions Department by (date).

We look forward to reading all of the entries, and awarding a future Talladega College student with this scholarship opportunity.

The John F. Weinberger Continental Motors Challenge Scholarship Fund

The Continental Challenge Scholarship Fund has been established by John Weinberger, Founder and President of the Continental Motors Group in Illinois. John never finished high school yet he had a passion for fixing cars along with a high degree of integrity. He built one of the largest private companies in the Chicagoland area, and one of the largest dealership groups in Illinois. He is also one of the top vintage cars racers in the Midwest. He is an inspiration to all those who have the privilege of knowing him, and supports others who share a common passion for cars and have a high moral character. He is a strong believer that respect is earned, not given.
