The Projects in the region of Central America and the Caribbean are done in partnership with other ONE DROP entities, coordinated by

ONE DROP Canada

ONE DROP projects use a tripod approach based on three complementary components

- Technical - To improve access to water and promote responsible use of this resource

- Microfinance - To grant loans to communities in order to launch income-generating initiatives and ensure the longevity of projects

- Social arts and popular education - To raise awareness, educate and mobilize communities on water-related issues in order to promote the sound management of water

ONE DROP's strategy is to act in clusters of countries in order to optimize the regional impact and use of resources

To ensure the best possible results, contracts are signed with some International and local partners, recognized for their accomplishments

One of the International partners is Oxfam International. Oxfam has been the leading supporter in terms of helping to implement our technical projects in developing countries. Some of the local partners in Honduras and El Salvador are TTT (Teatro Taller Tegucigalpa),

Asociacion Cultural Arte Accion, Asociacion de Arte Dramatico (AAD), Escénica, and Equipo Maiz

Detailed plan of implementation and budget are prepared at the beginning of a project. Frequent follow-up and reports are done during the realization phase. A permanent committee follows the projects, to ensure the consistency of strategic approaches and the effectiveness of execution, as well the durability and leverage of the actions undertaken in developing countries

Disbursements are done according to the completion status. Frequent visits in the field are done by professionals in charge

The project of awareness of interactive game project called Water Hero is also coordinated by ONE DROP Canada

The Water Hero joint venture sprang from ONE DROP and the de Gaspé Beaubien Foundation's desire to join forces in order to develop a social game that would teach young people about water-related issues in an entertaining manner as well as actively involve them in real-life innovative projects approved by ONE DROP and both organizations' partners

Detailed plan of implementation and budget are prepared at the beginning of a project. Disbursements are done according to the completion status. Frequent follow-up and reports are done during the realization phase

In order to monitor the use of grants, we require partners to provide financial reporting on the use of grant funds and ONE DROP does regular on site visits to monitor and assess the development of the projects. We also require our partners to perform and provide us audit reports. With all agreements signed with our partners, we reserve the right to have independent audits performed at any moment
