Like many non profits operating in Africa, we believe that the bicycle is a unique way towards solving many economic, social and health problems in Africa. Lack of transportation outside of the main cities makes it difficult for children to get to school, for adults to find work and for AIDS patients to get the medical attention they need. Bicycles make remote villages much more accessible, thereby improving the conditions of the inhabitants. In the interest of creating a long-term and self sufficient improvement in the lives of these impoverished citizens, we have endeavored to create a sustainable network of bicycle infrastructure, including the availability and affordability of bikes, widely available technical and repair know-how, and the availability of tools and necessary parts. Mike's Bikes Foundation has been working closely with local shop owners in Botswana, Namibia, Lesotho, and Zimbabwe to provide the tools and capital needed to start local bike shops. In 2011 alone, over 2,000 donated bicycles and thousands of bike supplies were successfully shipped to these shops in support of our mission. It is our hope to continue identifying individuals who are poised to operate bike shops and provide similar assistance to them in the future. In doing so, we will achieve our goal of developing a sustainable transportation infrastructure based on the bicycle.
