Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Lalela Project provides educational arts to youth affected by extreme poverty, sparking creative thinking and awakening the entrepreneurial spirit. The organization empowers children affected by extreme poverty through an innovative curriculum of ideas, art, and music (I AM). In the Western Cape, South Africa, and in Northern Uganda, we provide arts education to children grades one through twelve in a safe space during after-school and holiday periods; helping students navigate a clear path that is often cluttered with the hazards of extreme poverty, including gang violence, HIV / AIDS, and physical and substance abuse. Our programs ignite imagination and teach children how to map and manifest their dreams and goals, launching the possibility of a different future for themselves and their communities.

The word "lalela", which in Zulu means "to listen", is at the heart of what Lalela Project strives to do. By "listening" to children through artwork and music, we can learn about their challenges and dreams and we can, in turn, provide critical messaging and creative solutions to help them reach their true potential. By activating whole-brain creative thinking, we aim to encourage children to dream about a different future, and to provide them with the tools to manifest their dreams.

The goals of Lalela Project's programs are to 1) Listen to and identify key challenges in children's lives; 2) Provide a safe place for children to participate in the programs after school, a time during which children are often without parental supervision; 3) Provide relevant critical messaging through an interactive, culturally relevant and innovative I AM curriculum, touching on issues such as substance abuse, violence, gangs, and health; 4) Provide creative opportunities for children to express emotions; 5) Use art and music to cultivate imagination and "out-of-the-box" thinking so that children can envision creative solutions to challenges; 6) Introduce and encourage art and music experiences as a tool for positive change in their lives, as a healthy alternative to destructive behavior and environments, and as a practical application for academic and professional growth; and 7) Train educators to use art and music to help children engage in age-appropriate, important discussions about their lives and to empower students with the tools of creative expression.
