Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Self Help Africa's mission is to empower rural Africa to achieve economic independence. On a continent where up to 75% of people rely on small-scale agriculture for their survival, Self Help Africa, Inc. believes that it is only by tackling the challenges faced by rural farming communities can real and sustained economic progress be made across sub-Saharan Africa.

For over a quarter-century, Self Help Africa, IR has sought to strengthen agricultural systems; improve access to services and inputs; and to provide rural African communities with the opportunities to market and sell their produce. Self Help Africa works with local staff and partners in nine countries to support communities to grow more food; diversify their farm production; develop new off-farm enterprise; and sell their farm surpluses. It supports rural micro-finance programs; assists producers to organize into farmers' associations and co-operatives; and enables farm families to access markets and add value to their produce. Additionally it promotes low-cost sustainable solutions to the management of natural resources; supports community adaption to a changing climate; and provides resources to communities to meet the challenges of gender inequality. Self Help Africa is also committed to advocating in support of the interests of African smallholder farmers, urging a long-term commitment to aid and investment, to ensure the sustainable development of agriculture and food production in sub-Saharan Africa. This advocacy involves giving voice to smallholder farmers at national, regional and international levels, seeking to ensure that the unique position of smallholders in African agriculture is understood and that it is used to power economic growth in Africa.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Self Help Africa, Inc.

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of Self Help Africa, Inc. as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Organization's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audits.

I conducted my audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audits provide a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Self Help Africa, Inc. as of December 31, 2011 and 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2011 AND 2010

(1) Nature of Activities, Nonprofit Status and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Activities

Self Help Africa, Inc. was incorporated on February 23, 2009 in the State of Delaware as a not-for-profit corporation. Its mission is to empower rural Africa to achieve economic independence. On a continent where up to 75% of people rely on small-scale agriculture for their survival, Self Help Africa, Inc. believes that it is only by tackling the challenges faced by rural farming communities can real and sustained economic progress be made across sub-Saharan Africa.

Self Help Africa, Inc. is related to an international charity of the same name which is headquartered in Ireland and the United Kingdom (Self Help Africa, IR). After 25 years of operation in Africa and Europe, Self Help Africa, Inc. was launched with the aim of bringing the message of African futures to a wider audience and increasing support for the programs in Africa. Please refer to Note 2.

For over a quarter-century, Self Help Africa, IR has sought to strengthen agricultural systems; improve access to services and inputs; and to provide rural African communities with the opportunities to market and sell their produce. Self Help Africa works with local staff and partners in nine countries to support communities to grow more food; diversify their farm production; develop new off-farm enterprise; and sell their farm surpluses. It supports rural micro-finance programs; assists producers to organize into farmers' associations and co-operatives; and enables farm families to access markets and add value to their produce. Additionally it promotes low-cost sustainable solutions to the management of natural resources; supports community adaption to a changing climate; and provides resources to communities to meet the challenges of gender inequality. Self Help Africa is also committed to advocating in support of the interests of African smallholder farmers, urging a long-term commitment to aid and investment, to ensure the sustainable development of agriculture and food production in sub-Saharan Africa. This advocacy involves giving voice to smallholder farmers at national, regional and international levels, seeking to ensure that the unique position of smallholders in African agriculture is understood and that it is used to power economic growth in Africa.

Self Help Africa, Inc. operates administrative offices in New York, NY. It is supported primarily through contributions and grant revenue.

(1) Nature of Activities, Nonprofit Status and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Self Help Africa, Inc.'s revenue consists of contributions and grant revenue. Unrestricted contributions and grant revenue intended for the current period are recognized when received. Restricted contributions are recorded as temporarily restricted support and net assets if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor or sponsor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.
