Part III - Organization's Primary Exempt Purposes

Primary Program Service

Project Yeshuah ("PY") offers financial assistance, primarily through grants to individuals and families in need in the Miami-Dade County, Florida area
Financial assistance to those burdened by unfortunate and unforeseen hardships - to meet personal needs.

* Save them from hopelessness and despair

* Assist in financial management and independence

* Eliminate debt and excessive expenses

* Provide advocacy for educational scholarships

* Provide for catastrophic events, including financial, housing, utilities, etc.

Second Major Program Service

PY provides career counseling, coordinates with other community organizations for job database; PY completing development of interactive website including job database for prospective employers to post jobs and review resumes and for job seekers to post resumes and respond to job offerings.

Third Major Program Service

Individuals and families with financial needs face psychological and physical challenges, and PY has developed and continues to develop professional services (social workers, attorneys, psychologists, marital counselors, etc.) on a pro bono or reduced cost basis, the latter to be underwritten by PY.

All these programs exhibit PY's goal to assist individuals and families in need to deal with their financial, career, and related psychological issues in order for them to become viable and contributing members of their families and communities.
