Schedule 2

Part XV, Line 2b

The class of activity is student scholarships.

Scholarships based on financial need, has been awarded to 20 recipients, ranging from $250.00 to $5,000.00.

The scholarships totaled to a value of $18,000.00

There is no specific form on which scholarship applications should be submitted. However, applications must include the following information:

- (a) The name and address of the student.
- (b) Class of student.
- (c) Name of school in which student is attending.
- (d) Identification number of student (this is similar of a social security number)
- (e) Recommendation from the teacher for the student
- (f) The amount of any subsidies that the student is receiving from the government or any other sources of income.
- (g) The student's grades for the prior year.
- (h) Financial statements showing the assets of the student, if any.

The Foundation has made scholarships to students in Taiwan. It has made scholarship grants through the following charitable organizations:

Cheng Chung & Chung Yeh–Jui and Education

Foundation

(scholarships made directly to approximately 20 students per year)

The procedures for granting scholarships in Taiwan are as follows: After receiving applications, the Foundation selects an initial list of approximately 100 to 120 students who are the most needy and eligible. The Foundation then sends volunteers to visit each student and their families. It selects approximately 20 students to receive a scholarship. The volunteers visit the families and the students to make sure that the students have a bona fide financial need, that the student has outstanding personal qualifications, character and academic achievement, and that the student has a very positive attitude toward school and learning.

Recipients are not selected or rejected on the basis of their race, color, religion or national origin.

No student may receive a scholarship if that person is related in any way to an organizer or employee of the Foundation, a disqualified person, or any person who is related to or friends of such persons or of volunteers who visit the students and their families.

Part xv, Line 2c

The submission deadline is June 30 of each year. Scholarships are awarded by the end of August of each year.

Part XV, Line 2d

There are the following restriction and limitations on awards:

- (a) The recipients must be high school or college students.
- (b) The recipients must be extremely needy and have high academic qualifications, character and potential as discussed above.
