VFW POST 1031 accepts requests from its members for assistance to local organizations. The purpose of the request is documented and presented to the membership for discussion and ultimately a vote on whether the Post shall accept the request and contribute to the organization. If the membership votes the request down, then the request is denied. If assistance is needed and the amount is small (less than $ 100), an officer of the Post can approve the assistance. An example would be where a veteran or active member of the military is traveling, needs a motel room for the night and/or help with bus fare. Any assistance given is recorded in the Post's general ledger.

Part VI, Lines 11a and 11b

The Forms 990 and 990-T are reviewed by the Post's officers, then presented to the membership for acceptance. As part of this process the returns are discussed and reviewed with the membership. The membership then votes to accept the returns.

Part VI, Line 19

Arrangements will then be made to provide that person access to the documents.

Part VI

The governing body of the Post is the entire membership. All matters are reviewed and approved by the members.
