We have assembled from information provided by management, the accompanying statements of receipts and disbursements, and assets, net equities, and liabilities for The Gary Educational Development Foundation for the period then ending twelve months of operations as of December 31, 2011.

An assembly is limited to presenting in the form of financial statements information that is the representation of management. We have not compiled, audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and accordingly, do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on them.

If management elects to omit substantially all disclosures from the financial statements, we will include an additional paragraph that will read as follows:

Management has elected to omit substantially all of the disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. If the omitted disclosures were included in financial statements, they might influence the user's conclusions about the company's financial position, results of operations, and changes in financial position. Accordingly, these financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.

If, for any reason, we are unable to complete the assembly of your financial statements, we will not issue a report on such statements as a result of this engagement.

An assembly is based primarily on the creation of journals, coding the transactions, and categorizing for presentation purposes; because we will not perform a detailed examination of all transactions, there is a risk that material errors, irregularities, or illegal acts, including fraud or defalcations, may exist and not be detected by us. We will advise you, however, of any matters of the nature that come to our attention. In accordance with the terms of our engagement, this report and the accompanying assembly are restricted to internal use and may not be shown to any third party for any purpose.

We understand that you will provide us with the basic information required for our assembly and that you are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of that information. We will advise you about appropriate accounting principles and their application and will assist in the preparation of your financial statement, but the responsibility for the financial statements remains with you. This responsibility includes the maintenance of adequate records and related controls, the selection and application of accounting principles, and the safeguarding of assets.

Our examination is not specifically designed and cannot be relied on to disclose material weaknesses in accounting controls. However, during the assembly, if we become aware of such material weaknesses in internal accounting control or ways that we believe management practices can be improved, we will communicate them to you in a separate letter.

Respectfully,
Virgil Savage
