What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

Springboard Innovation is a social enterprise that builds critical infrastructure to enable citizen innovators to lead social change. The Organization operates programs built around a framework of four integrated initiatives to increase the capacity of individuals and enterprise to solve community problems. It is a comprehensive approach to nurture social and environmental innovation, improving communities and the world. 1) Teach the change maker inside each of us, 2) Convene community innovators for action, 3) Fund social innovation through micro philanthropy, 4) Build the municipal ecosystem for change.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
