Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4	In 2011 the by-laws were revised in the following provisions - The minimum number of directors was increased to 12 - The position of Chief Executive Officer was added and given the powers of the senior executive officer over the organization - The President's powers were modified to eliminate the position as an ex officio voting member of the board of directors
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	IFF's tax advisors prepare the Form 990 using information provided by financial management. The completed Form 990 is reviewed by the CFO and audit committee before being provided to the full board and then filed with the IRS.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	IFF believes that it is a stronger organization by virtue of having both investors and borrowers represented on its board or committees. There are also cases in which a board member serves on the board of a borrower whose loan may be brought to the board level. In the instance that a conflict exists, any involved parties do not participate in the voting. The minutes also record the conflict. IFF intentionally avoids relationships with major vendors whose owners or employees serve on the board, but if such a relationship exists, it is handled in the way described above.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Each year the Chair of the Board appoints the compensation committee which maintains continuity of membership and also includes at least one new member. The committee conducts a review of the President and CEO and reviews and approves compensation for the upcoming year. This process and Board discussion is documented in the minutes. Available comparison data is used in the review of compensation of the President and CEO each year. This included an industry compensation survey done by IFF's National Trade Association as well as local surveys done by Crain's Chicago Business. In 2011, IFF participated in a salary survey with The Delta Institute. The Delta Institute is a nonprofit that works on environmental sustainability and economic development. The Institute hired a third-party consultant (PRM Consulting Group) to review and analyze its salaries for staff positions. We contributed information of IFF's salaries, and in return received a breakdown of salary ranges for various staff from a third-party vendor. In addition to IFF, there were 14 other groups that provided salary information for the survey. IFF reviewed the information and will consider the survey when looking at its own similar positions. IFF also receives a national salary guide for IT, finance and administrative staff from Robert Half, a national employee placement firm, and other placement firms. Compensation of other key employees is approved by the CEO after review of performance, market conditions and the agency's budget.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Governing documents (e.g., by-laws), Conflict of Interest Policy and Form 990 are available to anyone upon request. IFF's annual budget, financial forecast, and audited financial statements and the annual report, which contains the list of all investors and contributors and the list of borrowers and clients, are available to the public on the IFF's website.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 12 - 14	The Conflict of Interest policy, Whistle-Blower Policy and Document Retention and Destruction Policy are reviewed and approved by the Board.
Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances	Form 990, Part XI, line 5	Net Assets Released from Restriction -2,022,647. Total to Form 990, Part XI, Line 5 -2,022,647.
