F990_P06_S0A_L06	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6	There is only one class of membership within the credit union. Organization and trust accounts are allowed with ownership specifically tied back to the individual. The only organization accounts allowed within the bylaws of Alliant are not-for-profit entities and/or associations. For purposes of voting, each full share ($5) is afforded one vote with respect to regular shares. Therefore, individual accounts can have multiple votes based upon the value of the account relative to individual full $5 increments. For trust and organizational accounts, each account is afforded one vote no matter the dollar amount of the account.

F990_P06_S0B_L11b	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The form 990 is prepared internally within the organization. The preparation process is led by a senior staff accountant within the Financial and Reporting Group and coordinated with various other senior leadership individuals within the credit union. Specifically the Manager of Human Resources participates in the process through support in gathering specific information related to the Board and the compensation of the credit union officers information. Once the return is prepared, it is reviewed by the Vice President of Accounting. A final review of the form 990 is completed by the Chief Financial Officer/ Senior Vice President of Finance and signed. Once the return is completed and filed, management communicates to the Board of Directors that we have met the filing requirement of the form 990 with the IRS but a copy is not provided.
