Its Bible commentary, the Navarre Bible, continued to reach more people and is of particular interest to prisoners who are given requested books without charge. It is the organization's belief that persons and society greatly benefit from their study of Scripture and that these books aid in a firm purpose of amendment which in turn reduces drastically the chances of recidivism.

Scepter has also been developing its own electronic book system in order to provide many more titles at low prices in this category which will be especially attractive to younger persons.

This effort continued in 2011 and is reaching startup phase by the middle of 2012.
