Re: Compass College of Cinematic Arts – Request for Degree Granting Authority Approved

Dear Ms. Lowe:

Congratulations. We are pleased to inform you that we are approving Compass College of Cinematic Arts to operate a non-public college in the State of Michigan.

This letter may be used as evidence that in accordance with Act 327, P.A. 1931, as amended, MCL 450.170-177, our office confirms that Compass College of Cinematic has demonstrated that: (a) the housing space and administration facilities that it possesses or proposes to provide for its declared field or fields of education are adequate; (b) its proposed educational program leading to the diplomas or degrees that it proposes to offer is adequate; (c) the laboratory, library, and other teaching facilities that it possesses or proposes to provide are adequate; (d) it has or proposes to employ an adequate staff, fully trained, for the instruction proposed; and, (e) at least 50% of its capital, whether consisting of stock or in gifts, devises, legacies, bequests or other contributions of money or property, has been paid in or is in its possession.

Consistent with the accreditation of the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC) we are approving Compass College of Cinematic Arts to conduct business in Michigan with the following purpose:

Operate a non-public college in Michigan, located at 560 Fifth Street NW, Suite 110, Grand Rapids, Michigan. Degrees authorized to be conferred are as follows: Associates of Applied Science in Film and Media Production. Associate degree programs must consist of at least 60 semester credit hours or equivalent of collegiate level study.

Compass College of Cinematic Arts admits academically qualified students without regard to gender, age, race, national origin, sexual orientation, political affiliation or belief, religion or disability.

In addition, the purposes for which the corporation is organized are to create communications while training students in the skills and tools of the filmmaking industry. The primary purpose of the Corporation is to act as a Christ-centered film school; and this purpose is accomplished through the following activities: creating and producing film, television, news media, video, radio, electronic, and print media projects; teaching and training individuals to accomplish these activities; and teaching general education courses.

Article VI

A volunteer director and a volunteer officer of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of the fiduciary duty as a director or officer, except for liability: (a) for any breach of the director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members; (b) for acts and omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) resulting from a violation of Section 551(1) of the Nonprofit Corporation Act; (d) for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; or (e) for any act or omission that is grossly negligent. In the event the Nonprofit Corporation Act is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors and officers, then the liability of the director or officer of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Nonprofit Corporation Act as so amended. Any repeal, modification or adoption of any provision of these articles of Incorporation inconsistent with this article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the corporation existing at the time of such a repeal, modification or adoption.

Article VII

The corporation shall assume all liability to any person other than the corporation or its members for all acts or omissions of a volunteer director, volunteer officer, or other volunteer if all of the following are met: (a) the volunteer was acting or reasonably believed he or she was acting within the scope of his or her authority; (b) the volunteer was acting in good faith; (c) the volunteer's conduct did not amount to gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct; (d) the volunteer's conduct was not an intentional tort; and (e) the volunteer's conduct was not a tort arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle for which tort liability may be imposed as provided in Section 3135 of the Insurance Code of 1956, Act No. 218 of the Public Acts of 1956, being Section 500.3135 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

Article VIII

The corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to a director or officer of the corporation in connection with a proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by and in accordance with Sections 561-569 of the Nonprofit Corporation Act. With respect to an employee or agent, other than a director or officer, of the corporation, the corporation may, to such employee or agent in connection with a proceeding to the extent permitted by and in accordance with Section 561-569 of the Nonprofit Corporation Act.

Article IX

When a compromise or arrangement or a plan of reorganization of this corporation is proposed between this corporation and its creditors or any class of them or between this corporation and its members or any class of them, a court of equity jurisdiction within the state, on application of this corporation or of a creditor or member thereof, or on application of a receiver appointed for the corporation, may order meeting of the creditors or class of creditors, or of the members or class of members to be affected by the proposed compromise or arrangement or reorganization, to be summoned in such manner as the court directs. If a majority in number representing $\frac{3}{4}$ in value of the creditors or class of creditors, or of the members or class of members to be affected by the proposed compromise or arrangement or a reorganization, agree to a compromise or arrangement or a reorganization of this corporation as a consequence or arrangement, the compromise or arrangement and the reorganization, if sanctioned by the court to which the application has been made, shall be binding on all creditors or class of creditors, or on all the members or class of members and also on this corporation.

Article X

Any action required or permitted to be taken at an annual or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the members having not less than the minimal number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take action at a meeting at which all members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to the members who have not consented in writing.

Article XI

The corporation shall hold and administer all of its assets and accumulated income to effectuate its tax-exempt purposes. No part of the income or assets of this corporation shall inure to the private benefit of any individual or director. If the corporation's purposes fail or if the corporation ceases to be approved as a tax-exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code, and any such defect is not cured by appropriate amendment, or if the corporation voluntarily dissolves, then all of the corporation's assets and accumulated income shall be distributed to such other organizations as the directors (or in default of designation by the directors, the Circuit Court of the County of Kent, Michigan) shall designate as best accomplishing the purposes for which the corporation was formed, provided that the organizations receiving such assets are qualified as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws. The corporation shall be dissolved after all its property has been so distributed.

Article XII

The corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Restated Articles of Incorporation and to add additional articles in the manner prescribed by statute.
