1 PART VI --- Section B

Line 11a. This form was reviewed with all board members during the time of distribution to members

Line 12c. The organization did not have a written conflict of interest document in 2011 since organization is in early stages of development

However, it is the intent that one will be designed, reviewed by board members, and discussed with all of them for future compliance, while the organization seeks to obtain income by way of grants and fees generated through programs and activities

Line 15a: No revenue was generated for the year 2011, but it is expected that in future years the organization will secure income from grants and fees obtained through programs and activities. At this time, the process for determining compensation will be followed as outlined in the question of line number 15.

2 PART VI --- Section C

Line 19: There were no income and activities to report for the tax year 2011 since the organization was founded towards the end of that year, and is still in early stages of development. However, in future tax years, the organization will have governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
