Part XIV Achievements of Oaklawn in 2011

As of December, 2011 the board members gathered updates from the organizations in the building on their progress toward meeting the mission of Oaklawn. Organizations in the building (Head Start, United Way of Dunn County, Hand in Hand Day Care, Rural Dental Clinic and Reach Day Services) are continuing to report signification collaboration between entities. Continuing to see huge growth in Streamlining current services and working in collaboration to serve additional families/individuals. With Rural Dental Clinic now a majority of children have signed permission slips within Head Start that during class they go to the clinic to get dental screening and dental care. The Hmong American Association is providing supports for families dealing with cultural issues through the Head Start interpreter. United Way is a leader for connecting resources back to organization and needy families in the building. They are providing supplies through a Walmart Distribution project which include light bulbs, dishrags, laundry soap etc.. They are also providing needy families furniture, emergency housing vouchers and clothing. The have connected with Head Start and Hand in Hand Day Care. Hand in Hand is seeing growth in children using day care through a wrap-around program where they attend Head Start program for K-4 in the morning or afternoon and walk through to use daycare opposite of their school program. Christ Lutheran Church is continuing to provide the organizations in Oaklawn winter mittens, hats, scarves, socks and other clothing items.

.Part III Oaklawn's mission statement

The Oaklawn Harmony Centre Inc. shall build upon the quality of the community for the purpose of creating seamless services by strengthening partnership, and increasing collaboration among non-profit organizations addressing issues of poverty faced by individuals who live and work in the community. To this end, Oaklawn Harmony Centre will:

- Lead in the development and implementation of collaborative programs that increase self-sufficiency of families with young children (Head Start anchor) in West Central Wisconsin.
- Provide staff and systems (to nonprofit) organizations to streamline and analyze current services and determine how additional people and needs can be served
- Assist non-profit organizations in obtaining funds for positive, high impact programs and service using grant writing and private donors
- Provide collaborative newsletters, brochures, and web pages conveying up-to-date information about (resident nonprofit) programs and services
- Provide staff training and personnel performance training
- Provide a centralized intake process and collaborative counseling, information, referrals, etc.
- Provide a collaborative resource library for the nonprofit organizations
- Offer a safe, healthy, affordable, common facility to the nonprofit organizations
