The Minnesota Jaycees is a statewide organization consisting of 73 local chapters. Our chapters are in rural, suburban, and urban areas of the state, and our membership is limited to young people between the ages of 18-40 from diverse socio-economic backgrounds.

The Minnesota Jaycees impact the next generation of civic leaders by working to ensure they have the skills, personal resources, and leadership ability to make a positive impact in Minnesota communities. Over the years, hundreds of thousands of young Minnesotans have developed their leadership skills through hands-on service in their communities, finding in themselves the ability to lead.

The Minnesota Jaycees develops leaders by.

- Managing community projects that make a positive impact
- Mentoring and coaching younger members
- Providing trainings and leadership opportunities for members to develop their skills by taking on leadership roles in the local chapter and their community as a whole

In 2011, members of the Minnesota Jaycees contributed around 16,500 volunteer hours on over 900 community projects across the state of Minnesota. With 73 chapters and a total of 2,168 volunteers statewide, the time they contributed in the community as volunteers adds up to a value of over $3,200,00.00 (using Minnesota's wage averages for similar paid positions).

Specific Programming for the Minnesota Jaycees in 2011

Connecting: The state organization facilitates connections among chapters and their young leaders across the state by providing opportunities for young people to share ideas and resources, socialize, and learn together.

- Held three weekend-long conventions
- Offer Local Officers' Training for chapters across the state
- Held Jaycee Leadership Academy for incoming chapter leadership
- "Road Running" – state team and members travel to help at chapter events statewide

Recognition: The state organization recognizes the outstanding leadership of chapters and members across the state through multiple awards programs.

- Aggregation and Promotion of Local Chapter Achievements
- Volunteer Recognition and Awards
- Lifetime Achievement Recognition

Resources: The state organization provides resources, management assistance, and framework to support local chapters in their training and development of leaders.

- Leadership Development programming and trainings offered at every convention
- Mentorship support provided through state leadership team
- Frameworks for Chapter success provided through project management tools, project planning guides, chapter management tools, and Individual Development Competitions
- Infrastructure support given through discounts at vendors, liability insurance, and technology resources (such as free website for each chapter)

Statewide Impact: The state organization provides greater impact and focus through coordination and communication of the Jaycees work statewide

- Provides link and access to broader network of trainings through United States Jaycees and Junior Chamber International
- Connects through strategic partnerships with other non-profit groups and organizations
- Held annual Ten Outstanding Young Minnesotan and Outstanding Young Farmer program
- Youth Sports Programming – ran local, regional, and the state competition for MLB's "Pitch, Hit, and Run" and the NFL's "Punt, Pass, and Kick" competitions

Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.

Electronic filing (e-file). You can electronically file Form 8868 if you need a 3-month automatic extension of time to file (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T), or an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension of time. You can electronically file Form 8868 to request an extension of time to file any of the forms listed in Part I or Part II with the exception of Form 8870, Information Return for Transfers Associated With Certain Personal Benefit Contracts, which must be sent to the IRS in paper format (see instructions). For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.
