Employees' conflict of interest disclosure forms are reviewed by the employee's supervisor, department director, and the Executive Director. Conflicts are noted and the employee must refer any conflicted transactions to his/her supervisor for approval. Conflicts of interest that arise outside of this process are addressed immediately by the employee's supervisor, department director, and the Executive Director. The Board Chair reviews the conflict of interest disclosure forms of Board of Directors members. Board members who have a possible conflict of interest are prohibited from voting or using their personal influence on the matter. Minutes of the meeting will reflect that a disclosure was made and that the member abstained from voting.

F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Every two to four years, an independent consulting firm is hired to do market pricing analysis for our Executive Director position and reports their findings to the Director of Human Resources. The Director of Human Resources reports the consultant's data to the Board of Directors, who then determines the Executive Director's salary for the next 12 month period. This process was last completed in 2011. In addition, the independent consulting firm was hired to market pricing analysis for all director-level positions (Leadership Council). This information was reported by the independent consulting firm to the Director of Human Resources and was approved by the Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer.
