The survivor of the William W. George and Ann Pilgram George may serve as the sole member of this corporation. Upon the death or resignation of both members, this corporation shall have no members with voting rights.

Bylaws 2. Resignation. A member may resign his or her membership at any time by giving written notice to the President or the Secretary, and to the other member, if any. Such resignation shall be effective without acceptance on the date of the receipt of such notice unless a later effective date is specified in the notice. The voting members may not be removed.

Bylaws 3. Interest in property. The members of this corporation shall not, as such, have any right, title or interest in the real or personal property of this corporation.

Bylaw 4. Action of Members. The voting members of this corporation may take action by the affirmative vote of both members at a meeting at which both members are present. The voting members may also take action without a meeting by written action signed by both members. At all times when this corporation has only one member, the sole member may take action in a writing signed by that member.

Board of Directors

Bylaw 5. Responsibilities; Number; Qualifications. The property, funds, affairs and business of the corporation shall be under the general authority of the Board of Directors (the "Board"), which shall consist of not fewer than three nor more than seven persons. The exact number of directors shall be determined from time to time by the voting members or, if this corporation has no voting members, by the Board. A majority of the directors shall be adults and a majority shall be George Family Members. For purposes of these Bylaws, a George Family Member means William W. George; Ann Pilgram George; their direct descendants, including adopted children, but not step children; and the spouses of their direct descendants, provided the spouse is not separated from the descendant.

Bylaw 6. Election; Term. The voting members shall appoint the directors or, if this corporation has no voting members, the Board shall elect the directors. A director shall serve for a term of three years, and shall hold office until expiration of the term and until a successor is appointed or elected and qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, removal or disqualification of the director.

Bylaw 7. Removal; Vacancy. A director may be removed, with or without cause, by the voting members. If this corporation has no members, a director may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board, provided that such action shall be taken at a meeting of the Board called for that the purpose. A director who is the spouse of a descendant of William W. George or Ann Pilgram George and who legally separates from or divorces that descendant shall be automatically removed as of the effective date of the separation of divorce without any action by the voting members or Board. Bylaw 8. Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held at any time upon request of the President or any two directors of the corporation. The request shall specify the purpose or purposes of the meeting. At each meeting of the Board, the President shall preside. If the President is not present, a chairman, chosen by a majority of the directors, shall preside. Bylaw 10. Notice. Written notice of each meeting of the Board for which notice is required, stating the time, date and place of the meeting, shall be mailed, personally delivered, or sent by electronic communication to each of the directors at least five, but not more than thirty days in advance of the meeting. Notice may be waived before, at or after a meeting, orally or in writing. Bylaw 11. Quorum; Proxies. At any meeting of the Board, a majority of the directors then holding office shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Except where otherwise required by statute or provided in these Bylaws, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum is sufficient for any action. Directors shall not appoint a personal proxy or vote by proxy.

Bylaw 12. Adjournments. Any meeting of the Board may be adjourned from time to time or day to day, or both, upon the consent of a majority of directors present. If the date, time and place of the adjourned meeting appear in the minutes of the original meeting, no further notice as to the date, time and place of the adjourned meeting need be given. At any adjourned and reconvened meeting at which a quorum of the directors is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

Bylaw 13. Remote Communication. A director may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of conference telephone or, if authorized by the Board, by such other means of remote communication, in each case through which that director, other directors so participating, and all directors physically present at the meeting may communicate with each other on a substantially simultaneous basis. Participation in a meeting by remote communication constitutes presence at the meeting.
