(Code) (Expenses $ 10,771,859 including grants of $ 10,771,859) (Revenue $)

Children's Health Care Foundation ("The Foundation") supports the mission of Children's Health Care d b a Children's Hospitals and Clinics ("Children's"), by obtaining financial resources that are leveraged to champion the special needs of children and their families and to improve children's health by providing high-quality, family centered pediatric services. The Foundation is the fundraising arm for Children's, which formed in 1924, and is one of the largest children's health care organization in the U S , with 332 staffed beds at our two hospital campuses in St Paul and Minneapolis. See Schedule O. An independent, not-for-profit health care system, Children's provides care through over 13,500 inpatient visits and more than 228,000 emergency room and other outpatient visits each year. The three largest services that the Foundation provides are to fund capital expenses, research and annual expenses for programs. These funds are transferred to Children's throughout the year and provide needed support to champion the special health needs of children. Programs: Annual operations support for programs; support expert interdisciplinary teams of physicians, nurses, and health care professionals able to address the most complex and difficult pediatric medical problems. A majority of program support is provided to non-reimbursable services that are essential in the healing process for children and families.

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,046,426 including grants of $ 1,046,426) (Revenue $)

Research - The purpose of funding research at Children's Health Care is to support a systematic investigation, including research development, testing, and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalized knowledge. Currently, Children's has more than 300 ongoing research studies and programs.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 10,761,999 including grants of $ 10,761,999) (Revenue $)

Capital - Capital support provides funds to purchase equipment and related supplies and services, or to make capital improvements. Such activities must 1) advance the mission of Children's and 2) have the potential for significant or long-term impact.

Forms are completed at the beginning of the year, and directors and committee members are instructed to provide additional disclosures if necessary during the course of the year. The Governance Committee of the governing body of Children's Health Care, along with senior management (CEO and General Counsel) of Children's Health Care, review all disclosures provided by governing board members. The results of this review and any concerns, limitations, etc. are reported by the Governance Committee to the full board. If conflicts are identified, the Governance Committee and management work to ensure that directors do not participate in discussion or voting on the affected matter.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Children's Health Care, the parent of the Foundation, follows the requirements set forth in the IRS rebuttable presumption of reasonableness in determining compensation for the President and other officers and executive leaders of the Foundation. This function is performed by the Compensation Committee of the governing board of Children's Health Care, which is composed of only independent directors. The process includes review of comparability data, retention of an outside compensation consultant and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision through detailed minutes of the Compensation Committee and full board meetings where executive compensation is considered.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Children's Health Care, the parent of the Foundation, makes financial statement information public through a summary of financial performance in its annual report. In addition, financial statements are provided to Children's Health Care's bond trustees, who thereafter make this information publicly available. The Foundation relies on the Conflict of Interest Policy of Children's Health Care, the parent of the Foundation. Children's Health Care does not make the Conflict of Interest Policy available to the public. The governing documents of the Foundation are not available to the public.
