with our families after a long winter. Our 5K & Family Day highlights our local agencies and informs the public of the wonderful services our agencies provide to Mahaska County residents. Community members can participate in our 5K Run/Walk and then celebrate with family and friends. We tailor the day towards families, as we know the importance of building family relationships.

Prizes are given away, a free picnic lunch is provided, and fun is had by all.

Winter Coat Drive: Expenses - $135 - Each Iowa winter brings temperatures that are unbearable to most of us. At United Way of Mahaska County, we take the opportunity to give winter outerwear to those that cannot afford to purchase all the necessities to get them through the winter months. At no cost to those that need it, all of our items are donated by community members who recognize the need to give back each holiday season. We scatter donation boxes throughout our community and work with our local media to help spread the word so no one in Mahaska County goes without warm outerwear each winter.

Literacy Program: Expenses - $1,826 - United Way of Mahaska County has a unique program for the members of our community. In our each year.

The budget for the remainder of the year was reviewed, as was a small amount of comparability data, in determining the compensation at the time. A policy has been established for years 2012 and beyond to guide the Board when hiring or reevaluating compensation for key executives in the organization.
