Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b - Veridian Credit Union collects amounts from members with real estate loans each month via their contractual payment schedule. These funds are held in escrow until they need to be disbursed in accordance with the escrow instructions for each member. Amounts held in escrow are for property taxes and homeowner's insurance.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Income Taxes: The Credit Union is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(14) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 122 of the Credit Union Act. The Credit Union's insurance brokerage subsidiary, however, is subject to state and federal income taxes. Operations of the subsidiary resulted in no income taxes for either 2011 or 2010. The Credit Union accounts for uncertainty in income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return, should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Credit Union may recognize the tax benefits from an uncertain tax position only if it is more-likely-than-not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are being measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses derecognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. This standard did not have an impact on the financial statements and the Credit Union believes it does not have any uncertain tax
