ARTICLE VI
Resignations

Any director or officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the board of directors, to the chairman of the board, to the president, or to the secretary of the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if the time be not specified therein, upon its acceptance by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VII
Contracts, Loans, Checks, and Deposits

SECTION 1. Contracts. The board of directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, unless otherwise restricted by law. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

SECTION 2. Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the board of directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

SECTION 3. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the Corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the board of directors.

SECTION 4. Deposits. All funds of the Corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the board of directors may select.

ARTICLE VIII
Conflict of Interest Policy

VI SEC B LINE 12C
The Corporation shall have the following policy concerning conflict of interest situations:

SECTION 1. Purpose and applicability of provision.

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect the Corporation when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, director, or other person associated with the Corporation or that might result in a possible "excess benefit transaction" under the federal tax laws. This policy is intended to supplement (but not replace) any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable corporations.

Nothing in this Article shall authorize any actions which are proscribed by federal or Florida law; which could subject the Corporation to any excise tax under sections 4941-4945 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; or which could subject the Corporation to any other tax penalty or to loss of its federal income tax exemption.

The provisions of this Article shall supersede any other contrary provision of these bylaws.

SECTION 2. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this Article:

Interested Person: An "interested person" shall include any director, officer, or member of a committee to which the board of directors has delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect "financial interest," as defined below.

Financial Interest: A person has a "financial interest" if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family or marital relationship, any of the following:

- An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement,
- A compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
- A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
- A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Whether a financial interest constitutes a conflict of interest shall be determined in the manner set forth below.

Compensation: The term "compensation" includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

SECTION 3. Procedures for determining and addressing conflicts of interest.

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, each interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and all material facts relating to the financial interest and any proposed transaction or arrangement at a meeting of the board of directors and/or at a meeting of any committee which is considering the transaction or arrangement. The interested persons may present to the board or committee any information which the interested persons believe that the board or committee should consider in determining whether a conflict of interest exists.

All further proceedings under this Section 3 shall be undertaken only by disinterested members of the board or committee. A majority of such disinterested members shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this Article.

The Board or committee may conduct such investigation and consider such additional information as it deems relevant. The Board or committee shall determine by majority vote

- whether a conflict of interest exists. The interested persons shall not be present during the deliberations or vote of the Board or committee.

If a conflict of interest is found to exist, the Board or committee shall appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. The Board or committee shall determine by the exercise of due diligence whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity which would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board or committee shall determine by a majority vote whether the transaction or arrangement is fair and reasonable, in the Corporation's best interest, and for the Corporation's benefit. The Board or committee shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with this determination.

SECTION 4. Violations of the policy.

If the Board or any committee has reasonable cause to believe that a person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the person of the basis for such belief and afford the person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the person's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board or committee determines that the person has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, the Board or committee shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action. Disciplinary or corrective action may include removal from membership on the Board, any committee, or the Corporation, or removal from any office.

SECTION 5. Records of proceedings. The minutes of the Board and all committees to which the Board has delegated powers shall contain:

The names of the persons who have disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest; the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present; and the decision of the Board or committee as to whether a conflict of interest existed.

The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement; the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement which were discussed; and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

SECTION 6. Compensation.

A voting member of the Board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

No voting member of the Board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

SECTION 7. Annual statements. A statement shall be signed each year by each director, by each officer; and by each member of a committee to which the Board of Directors has delegated powers. The statement shall affirm that the person signing it

Has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy,

Has read and understands the policy,

Has agreed to comply with the policy, and

Understands that the Corporation is charitable and that in order to maintain its federal tax exemption, it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

SECTION 8. Periodic reviews. To ensure the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.

Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management corporations conform to the Corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

SECTION 9. Use of outside experts. When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Section 8, the Corporation may (but need not) use outside expert advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring that periodic reviews are conducted.

ARTICLE IX

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on January 1 and end on December 31 in each year.
