| Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48 | Part X           | The Organization is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") whereby only unrelated business income, as defined by Section 512(a)(1) of the Code, is subject to federal income tax. Contributions are tax deductible within the limitations prescribed by the Code. The Organization's policy is to record a liability for any tax position taken that is beneficial to the Organization, including any related interest and penalties, when it is more likely than not the position taken by management with respect to a transaction or class of transactions will be overturned by a taxing authority upon examination. Management believes there are no such positions as of December 31, 2011 and 2010 and, accordingly, no liability has been accrued. Generally the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") may examine a tax return for three years from the date it is filed. As of December 31, 2011, tax years ended December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010 remained open for possible examination by the IRS. |

|            | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11  | A detailed review of the Form 990 is conducted by the organization's finance and audit committee, after which a copy is provided to the full board prior to filing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|            | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | Under the organization's conflict policy, all officers, directors, key employees and other covered persons are required to sign an annual confirmation that they are in compliance with the policy. The annual confirmation includes a disclosure form on which each covered person is required to list all actual or potential conflicts known to such person at the time. Under the terms of the policy, any person with a conflict is required to disclose such conflict prior to the board taking action, and such person is not permitted to vote on or take part in deliberations with respect to such transaction. All transactions with respect to which there is a conflict must be approved by a majority of disinterested directors after reviewing comparability data that establishes the fairness of the transaction to the organization. |
|            | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | The organization has established a personnel committee consisting of independent board members that annually reviews compensation for all officers and key employees. The committee reviews the reasonableness of the organization's compensation by comparing it to amounts paid by organizations that are similar in mission, budget, number of employees and geography.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|            | Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | The organization does not make its governing documents, conflict policy or financial statements available to the public, which policy is in compliance with the Internal Revenue Code and current Regulations.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
