Applications are accepted between December 8–January 15 for the May Meeting ... and between June 8–July 15 for the November Meeting. Due to a large volume of applications, we cannot guarantee that applications received in the last week of these time frames will be processed for review. We urge you to submit your applications as early as possible in each time period. In addition, applications that arrive too late for either time frame will not be reviewed until the next meeting.

Submission. The most convenient method of submitting an application is electronically on the Foundation's website at www.rfca.org. We invite you to do so and encourage applicants to submit their materials at the beginning of the time frames.

Our Board of Trustees has amended this policy to include other independent Catholic organizations outside of the U.S., if the following step is taken:
