Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

The recipients of summer grants are current law students at Berkeley Law School who use the money to participate in internsip programs with non-profit legal organizations that are not able to pay the students for their work. Summer grant recipients provide a short report describing the work they performed during their internship. The recipients of the year-long post graduate grants are required to submit a progress report at the mid-point of the grant year and a final report when the grant period is completed. Phoenix fellows who receive tuition assistance and summer funding provide short reports of their summer work.
