This project will facilitate the development of a detailed teaching unit designed to use this voting opportunity to teach students how to approach their vote thoughtfully and seriously. Students will learn important techniques for analyzing the nominees through on-line research, ferreting out truth from hyperbole, and recognizing the importance of an information source. Furthermore, students will refine their decision-making skills which go into determining which nominees to support. Once a student decides whom to support, the teaching unit will encourage the development of Comcast Cares Day 2011.	$25,000.00
