STATEMENT 1

Nuclear Threat Initiative, Inc.

EIN: 52-2289435

Form 990. Part I, line 1 & Form 990, Part III, line 1.

For the year ended December 31, 2011

The Nuclear Threat Initiative's mission is to strengthen global security by reducing the risk of use and preventing the spread of nuclear, biological and chemical weapons, and to work to build the trust, transparency and security that are preconditions to the ultimate fulfillment of the Non-Proliferation Treaty's goals and ambitions.

Nuclear Threat Initiative, Inc.

EIN: 52-2289435

Form 990. Part III. Statement of Program Service Accomplishments.

Line 4a. Communications & Public Education

NTI's Communications and Public Education program aims to provide resources to nonproliferation professionals, and to educate and inform the public on the risks and threats from nuclear, biological and chemical weapons, terrorism and related issues. NTI manages a number of websites which provide comprehensive, in depth online content. www.nti.org is the most visited site.

The program also tries to engage and expand the network of individuals interested in efforts to reduce the threats from nuclear, biological and chemical weapons and materials with the goal of inspiring individuals to become personally involved in efforts to expand and accelerate the pace of work to reduce these threats.

Specific accomplishments during the tax year include:

Global Security Newswire

NTI supports the publication of Global Security Newswire by the National Journal Group, which provides daily news on nuclear, chemical and biological weapons, terrorism and related issues. National Journal produces original reporting and a comprehensive snapshot of the day's global news on these issues for a readership which includes both professionals and those with a lay interest. It appears exclusively on NTI's website.

Online Research Center and Library

NTI funds the James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies at the Monterey Institute for International Studies to produce a research library containing information, analysis and educational materials relating to the threats from nuclear, biological and chemical weapons, missile development programs and terrorist activities. The library builds on the most comprehensive open-source nonproliferation databases in the world and brings together a range of expert opinion and analysis on these issues.

Line 4b. The Nuclear Security Project (NSP)

The Nuclear Security Project (NSP) is an effort to galvanize global support for and action on the vision of a world free of nuclear weapons and the urgent steps needed to reach that goal. Former Secretary of State, George P. Shultz, former Defense Secretary William J. Perry, former Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and former Senator Sam Nunn (“the NSP principals”) joined together to form the NSP in the wake of their Wall Street Journal op-eds which have re-framed the terms of the global debate on nuclear issues. Through the project, NTI has partnered with organizations across five continents, helped create regional networks of serving and former leaders, and engaged officials at the highest levels of government internationally to promote dialogue, education and action on the Vision and the Steps agenda. Through grant-making, conferences and meetings, and educational outreach, we have enabled analytic studies and expended support for the project by bringing together key subject experts, senior statesmen, and political and military leaders. In September 2009, the United Nations Security Council implicitly endorsed the agenda of the Nuclear Security Project through the adoption of UNSC Resolution 1887.

Specific accomplishments during the tax year include:

Internationalizing the NSP:

During 2011, NTI continued to expand the international reach of the NSP by ensuring that the vision and steps agenda remains a priority in key countries and regions. A key component of this strategy was facilitating the development of networks of influential politicians, military figures and diplomats in Europe and the Asia-Pacific region. These “Leadership Networks” are crucial to sustaining momentum on disarmament and nonproliferation.

In addition, through the NSP, we continued our partnerships with trusted security and defense institutions around the world to help shape the analytic agenda in key countries, hence ensuring they complement and build on the global momentum behind the vision and steps, and expand support and action for the vision and steps to a broader international audience, to include policy makers, subject matter experts, the public and media.

Nuclear Tipping Point:

In January 2010, the NSP launched “Nuclear Tipping Point” – a documentary film about nuclear dangers and the need to combine the vision of a world free of nuclear weapons with steps to move toward that goal. In “Nuclear Tipping Point,” Shultz, Perry, Kissinger, and Nunn share the personal experiences that led them to write the three Wall Street Journal op-eds describing their efforts to reduce reliance on nuclear weapons, to prevent their spread into potentially dangerous hands and ultimately to end them as a threat to the world. The film is introduced by General Colin Powell, narrated by actor Michael Douglas and includes interviews with California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger and former Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev, among others. The NSP is distributing the film, free of charge, as part of the of our education and outreach efforts. The film website has been an especially useful tool and the NSP is utilizing the site and other social media outlets to promote and distribute the film and advance the NSP goals. The film has been distributed to every state in the United States and countries worldwide. Screening events and discussions have been and continue to be held across the country and around the world.

Analytic Studies:

Analytic work in 2011 focused on deterrence. In March 2011, the NSP principals published an Op-Ed in the Wall Street Journal arguing that the doctrine of mutual assured destruction is obsolete in the post-Cold War era. This was followed in May 2011 by a two-day conference, Deterrence: Its Past and Future, co-hosted by NTI, the Hoover Institution, and the European Leadership Network. The conference included George Shultz, Bill Perry, Henry Kissinger, Sam Nunn and former senior officials and subject matter experts from around the world. The meeting helped stimulate international dialogue on deterrence and identify near-term practical steps that can be applied regionally and globally to support the transition toward a new and more stable form of deterrence. In addition, NTI published the report "Reducing Nuclear Risks in Europe" in November 2011 which was designed to help develop an approach to reduce nuclear risks in Europe and promote dialogue on key issues within NATO and Russia.

Line 4c. Nuclear Materials Security

The NTI Nuclear Materials Security Program aims to strengthen global nuclear materials security through a range of projects to catalyze more effective actions by governments.

Specific accomplishments during the tax year include:

NTI Nuclear Materials Security Index

In 2011, NTI developed the NTI Nuclear Materials Security Index, a first-of-its-kind assessment of global nuclear materials security conditions on a country-by-country basis. The NTI Index, prepared with the Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU) and guided by an international panel of nuclear security experts, was created to catalyze an international discussion about nuclear materials security priorities, and to encourage governments to provide assurances and take actions to strengthen nuclear materials security.

The NTI Index assesses the nuclear materials security conditions for the 32 states with one kilogram or more of weapons-usable nuclear materials using five categories: 1) Quantities and Sites, 2) Security and Control Measures, 3) Global Norms, 4) Domestic Commitments and Capacity and 5) Societal Factors. An additional 144 states, with less than one kilogram of material or none at all, are assessed on the last three of these categories.

While the 2010 and 2012 Nuclear Security Summits have been instrumental in raising awareness and initiating action, it is critical to keep attention on this issue between summits and beyond. Since its release in early 2012, the NTI Index has been praised for promoting a global dialogue on priorities for nuclear materials security, highlighting the need for a comprehensive framework and identifying specific actions needed to improve materials security around the world. NTI anticipates releasing the second edition of the NTI Index in 2013, in advance of the 2014 Nuclear Security Summit.

U.S.-Russia cooperation

To test and improve readiness to respond to a nuclear smuggling incident, NTI gathered former high-level national security officials from Russia and the United States in Moscow to address how our joint response—if tested now by a real threat—could prevent an attack. The group found significant, but removable, barriers to sharing information effectively and taking action. NTI published a report featuring the group's key lessons and recommendations in both English and Russian.

Subsequently, the U.S. and Russian governments invited NTI to facilitate a similar official exercise with government officials. The Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs' public statement noted that, "This event was part of the wider ongoing work with our American partners to strengthen the security of nuclear materials."

In a related effort, NTI, working with U.S. and Russian experts, has developed an action plan for U.S.-Russian nuclear materials security cooperation in other countries, with a focus on Southeast Asia.

Line 4d. Other program services

NTI aims to create projects that catalyze further governmental and international action on nuclear, biological and chemical threats, through multi-year projects, all of which were active in this tax year.

NTI's biological program, the Global Health and Security Initiative works around the world to prevent, detect and respond to biological threats. The threats arising from natural or deliberately induced disease outbreaks are both a health and a security issue. To find solutions to the extraordinarily complex biological threat, NTI is pioneering new approaches toward health and security. Specifically in the tax year, GHSI focused on improving global capacity for the prevention of and preparedness for biological threats through enhancing disease surveillance, early detection and response.

Section A.

Line 1a – NTI's governing body, the Board of Directors, meets semi-annually. Between meetings, it delegates authority under NTI's by-laws to the Executive Committee, which is composed of not less than three and not more than five members who must have been or are to be upon election, Directors of NTI, and includes the co-chairmen of the Board. The Executive Committee is appointed annually by the Board. During the year ended December 31, 2011, the Executive Committee was made up of the co-chairmen of the Board, and the President of NTI. During intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee possesses and may exercise all the powers and functions of the Board of Directors in the management and direction of the affairs of NTI in all cases in which specific direction has not been given by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee can also resolve any matter in which the co-chairmen fail to agree. All actions of the Executive Committee are required to be reported to the Board of Directors at its next meeting. Contemporaneous minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee are kept. A majority of the voting members of the Executive Committee in office at the time are necessary to constitute a quorum and in every case, an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting members of the Committee present at a meeting is necessary for taking any action.

Line 4 - In June 2011, NTI's Board approved a change to NTI's bylaws to dissolve the Nominating Committee of the Board and create a Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board, responsible for (a) recommending to the Board of Directors (i) criteria regarding Board membership and (ii) proposed candidates for Board membership and officers of the Initiative, (b) reviewing the bylaws and proposing, as appropriate, changes thereto, and (c) assisting the Board and Management of the Initiative with the development and implementation of various strategies to raise funds in support of the Initiative's mission.

Section B.

Line 11A – NTI's Form 990 is prepared by its Finance department. It is initially reviewed by the Treasurer/CFO and then an independent review is provided by Avalon Financial Advisors, LLC. Next, the CFO reviews the Form 990 with management – the Executive Vice President, and the President. NTI's Board of Directors has delegated its review of the Form 990 to the Executive Committee. However, the final Form 990 is required to be sent to all members of the Board for informational purposes prior to being filed.

Line 12c – NTI's bylaws require that a copy of NTI's Conflict of Interest Policy, as adopted by the Board, be furnished to each Director, Officer and operational staff member serving at or associated with NTI. NTI's policy states that a conflict of interest exists:

- When an officer or member of the staff takes part in a decision in which it appears that she/he may be unable to remain impartial in choosing between the interests of the Nuclear Threat Initiative and his/her personal interests or the personal interest of his/her related parties or the interests of his/her reportable affiliates, or
- When an officer or member of the staff uses privileged information gained in the course of service at NTI for personal benefit or gain, or for the personal benefit of gain or his/her related parties or the interests of his/her reportable affiliates, or
- When an officer or member of the staff, by virtue of his/her relationship to NTI, receives a benefit that represents a transfer of NTI's financial resources that is not related to the accomplishment of NTI's tax-exempt purposes.

Related parties are defined as spouses, parents, children, siblings, in-laws and any individuals who reside in an officer or member of the staff's household.

Reportable affiliate means an institution, corporation or business organization for which an officer or member of the staff or a related party (who to the knowledge of the officer or staff member) serves as an officer, director, partner, employee, or agent; holds more than 1% of the voting stock (if any); or has dealings from which he or she has materially benefitted (i.e. received more than $1,000 exclusive of dividends or interest).

NTI prohibits participation by officer or staff in any matter or otherwise engage in any activity for which a conflict of interest exists. Board members are recused from decisions of the Board in which a conflict of interest might arise. Board members, officers and staff member are required to disclose to NTI any related party and any reportable affiliate which is likely to apply or otherwise be considered by NTI for a grant award or financial transaction. The information provided must be updated annually, or more frequently as appropriate. NTI requests annual updates from its Board members and staff through reissuance of the policy together with a standard form for them to complete.

Line 15 – Annually the CEO presents a memorandum to NTI's Compensation Committee, in which he recommends compensation levels for NTI's CEO and Officers.

In 2010, NTI commissioned an independent compensation comparability study to assess its levels of compensation as compared to equivalent organizations and the market. The study was completed in 2011. NTI used the study results to set compensation levels at the beginning of 2011.

Until a need for a new study is identified, NTI, consistent with historic practice, will propose compensation increases based on the 2011 compensation, likely adjusted for inflation as determined by the Washington area Consumer Price Index (CPI). In addition, the CEO has historically taken into account the importance of retaining a uniquely qualified team at NTI, and in certain circumstances has made a case for small merit increases.

In 2011, the Compensation Committee was made up of three independent members of the Board of Directors. Per NTI's bylaws, the members of the Compensation Committee may not include current or former Directors who are also salaried senior executives of NTI. The Compensation Committee presents its recommendations to the Board of Directors in executive session. The recommendations include specific salary levels for the CEO, the President and all Officers. Officer salaries are approved by majority vote of NTI's Board of Directors, as directed by NTI's bylaws.

Minutes of the Compensation Committee are maintained with NTI's corporate files at the office of NTI's Secretary.

Form 990, Schedule A, Part II, Line 17a

Statement 5

NTI normally receives a substantial part of its support from direct or indirect contributions from the general public. NTI also meets certain other requirements; the pertinent factors set forth in the regulations are discussed below:

i. Ten percent-of-support limitation

Based on support over previous years, NTI anticipates that its public support will continue to range between 19 and 35 percent of total support.

ii. Attraction of public support

NTI receives support primarily from a number of individual donors, foundations and public charities. NTI's fundraising department has also developed a database of approximately 100,000 supporters who follow NTI's activities through its website and e-mail and direct mail distributions. These supporters periodically donate to NTI through year end solicitations, upon receipt of NTI's annual report or for other reasons. NTI intends to continue this pattern of solicitation, and also hopes to further build support from the general public through its donor database, and other means.

iii. Percentage of financial support

As noted above, NTI expects that its public support will continue to consistently range between 19 and 35 percent. In FY08, support was 33.57%; in FY09, support was 25.42%; in FY10, support was 21.86%; in FY11, support was 19.05%. The ranges are close to, or exceed, the 10 percent facts-and-circumstances test as prescribed in section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and should therefore be favorably regarded.

iv. Sources of Support

NTI anticipates that it will continue to receive support from individual, but unrelated donors, foundations and public charities.

v. Representative governing body

NTI has a governing body representative of the broad interests of the public, including various public officials, community leaders and security and policy experts. Its current board consists of the following individuals:

- R.E. Turner, Chairman of Turner Enterprises, Founder of CNN
- Sam Nunn, Former U.S. Senator
- Charles B. Curtis, Former Deputy Secretary of the US Department of Energy

- Joan Rohlfing, President of NTI, Former Director of the Office of Nonproliferation and National Security, US Dept of Energy
- Dr. Alexei Arbatov, Russian Institute of World Economy and International Relations
- Pete V. Domenici, Former U.S. Senator
- Susan Eisenhower, President of the Eisenhower Institute
- Ambassador Rolf Ekeus, Stockholm International Peace Research Institute
- General Eugene E. Habiger, USAF (Ret.) Former Commander in Chief of the US Strategic Command
- HRH Prince El Hassan Bin Talal, Jordan
- Igor S. Ivanov, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Russia
- U.S. Senator Richard G. Lugar (R – Indiana)
- Dr. Jessica Mathews, President of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- Ronald L. Olson, Partner, Munger, Tolles & Olson, LLP
- Judge Hisashi Owada, President of the International Court of Justice
- Dr. William J. Perry, Stanford University and Former Secretary of Defense
- Dr. Nafis Sadik, Special Advisor to the UN Secretary-General
- Professor Amartya Sen, Lamont University Professor and Professor of Economics and Philosophy, Harvard University and Noble Prize Winner
- Rt Hon Professor Shirley Williams, House of Lords, UK
- Professor Fujia Yang, Fudan University and Member of the Chinese Academy of Sciences

vi. Availability of public facilities or services; public participation in programs or policies

To support the public's access to a range of views and information about the threats from weapons of mass destruction, NTI offers a number of content-rich websites and materials to support public education. The primary website is at www.nti.org. The website serves as an information clearing house with unique resources, available to any visitor, which include:

- A free, daily, independent news service provided by National Journal Group covering global developments related to nuclear, biological and chemical weapons, also available by email delivery and Twitter
- A research library with the world's most comprehensive, open-source nonproliferation data collections, as well as profiles of the nuclear, biological and chemical weapons programs of over 40 countries, and issue briefs that offer short introduction and in-depth analysis on a wide range of international security issues;
- Publications and source documents published by U.S. and foreign governments ;

- Reports, articles and analysis on nuclear, biological and chemical weapons policy for audiences ranging from high school students to experts
- Films that address the nuclear threat, available on the web or by mail-order

The website is available free of charge to all interested persons.

NTI also conducts regular public outreach and education related to nuclear issues, and provides expert testimony to the US and other governments, as requested. NTI continues its public outreach program in support of the Nuclear Security Project, a project aimed at reducing reliance on nuclear weapons, preventing their proliferation and ultimately ending them as a threat to the world. NTI produced a documentary film, Nuclear Tipping Point, featuring the four project principals, Henry Kissinger, Sam Nunn, William Perry, and George Shultz and screened the films to groups all over the United States and around the world. The film is available online and on DVD, free of charge to interested parties through NTI's website. The film also has a teacher's guide that provides lesson plans and exercises aligned with U.S. public school national standards.

This is the second such project that NTI has undertaken. The first film, Last Best Chance, was made in 2005, and, together with a public education campaign about the risks of unsecured nuclear material, added significantly to NTI's public profile, supporter database, and outreach efforts.

vii. Additional Factors pertinent to membership organizations

This factor is not applicable to NTI because NTI is not a membership organization.

STATEMENT 6

Nuclear Threat Initiative, Inc.

EIN: 52-2289435

Form 990, Schedule D, Part XIV

For the year ended December 31, 2011

Form 990, Schedule D, Part X – FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote

On July 1, 2009, NTI adopted the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, NTI may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods.

Management evaluated NTI's tax positions and concluded that NTI had taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to the financial statements to comply with the provisions of this guidance. Generally, NTI is no longer subject to income tax examinations by the U.S. federal, state or local tax authorities for years before 2008.

Narrative responses for Form 990, Schedule F and I, Part V*Schedule F, Part I, Line 2: "Monitoring the use of grant funds outside the US"
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2: "Monitoring the use of grant funds in the US"

Grants are monitored through the following activities:

1. Pre-grant Inquiry

NTI program personnel confirm the suitability of the grantee by reviewing prior history and experience, considering references and complying with export control regulations. Results are documented in a "decision memo" which is presented to either the Board of Directors or the President for approval, depending on the size of the grant.

2. Written Grant Agreement

Once a grant proposal is approved, a grant agreement is drawn up between NTI and the grantee. This sets out the purpose of the grant, the budget and details the legal commitments, including compliance with US export control laws and regulations, and limitations on use of funds being entered into by NTI and the grantee. All grant agreements are given a number for tracking purposes, and are signed by both parties.

3. Accounting for Grant Funds

The grant agreement specifies that grantees keep accurate and complete books and records of receipts and expenditures made in connection with the grant, maintaining such books and records in a manner that the receipts and expenditures of grant funds are shown separately.

4. Regular Reporting

The grant agreement requires that periodic (at least annual) narrative and financial reports are submitted to NTI detailing work accomplished and expenditure of grant funds against budget. Reports are reviewed by both NTI's program and financial personnel.

5. Project Oversight

NTI program personnel are in regular contact with grantee personnel and visit certain key projects to assess progress against grant goals.

6. Disbursement of Funds

NTI's grants are disbursed either up front, in tranches, or on an invoicing basis, dependent on the grant agreement. No funds are disbursed until a signed grant agreement has been received, export control checks have been reviewed and approved, and any other appropriate documentation received. For grants that are managed in tranches, or through invoicing, it is generally necessary that all reporting is up to date, and the appropriate stage of the grant project completed prior to subsequent funds being disbursed.

Sch F, Part I, Line 3, column (f): "Accounting Method Used"

All accounting records are maintained on accrual basis and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (US GAAP). All unconditional grants are booked in full to the income statement at the point the grant agreement has been signed by both parties. In the year ended December 31, 2011, NTI did not make any conditional grants.

First class travel: NTI's Board travel policy states that, "It is the general policy of NTI to provide reimbursement for business class (or the domestic equivalent) airfare [for its Board members], unless exception is made with the approval of either Co-Chairmen or the President to allow first class airfare for international travel in appropriate circumstances." In calendar year 2011, NTI paid for Board members William Perry and Sam Nunn to travel first class on certain occasions for reasons which were deemed appropriate by NTI's President, in compliance with the policy.

Travel for Companions: NTI's policy states that, "Spouses and accompanying assistants of Directors of NTI are specifically invited to and expected to attend meetings of the Board and to participate in Board dinner discussions to gain insight to the substantive programs of NTI to facilitate their ability to knowledgeably represent the work of the Initiative to government officials and leaders in their communities." In calendar year 2011, NTI paid travel costs to allow the spouses of Board members, Fujia Yang, Eugene Habiger, and Sam Nunn to accompany their husbands to the NTI Board meeting, in accordance with policy. NTI additionally paid for the spouse of Board member and CEO, Sam Nunn, to attend the Emory Archives Meeting.
