	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	HCWH's federal Form 990 is reviewed by the Controller, the Director of Finance and Administration, and the Executive Director. Such review takes place upon receipt of the draft Form 990 received from the independent public accounting firm who conducts the financial statement audit of HCWH. The review involves comparison of financial data in the draft Form 990 with the audited financial statements and the books and records of HCWH and review of all narrative information for accuracy and completeness. Additionally, the Treasurer of the Board of Directors reviews a copy of the return for accuracy. Prior to filing the federal Form 990 with the Internal Revenue Service, a complete copy is provided to all voting members of HCWH's Board of Directors.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Board of Directors Conflict of Interest Policy provides the following procedures for addressing potential conflicts of interest that may require board or committee action: 1) The Interested Person must disclose all facts material to the conflict of interest and such disclosure must be reflected in the minutes of the meeting where such matter is being reviewed; 2) The Interested Person is prohibited from participating in discussions except to disclose material facts and respond to questions; 3) Such person shall not attempt to exert his or her personal influence with respect to the matter either at or outside of the meeting; 4) Such person may not be present to hear the Board of Directors or committee discussions on the matter; 5) Such Interested Person is precluded from voting on the matter and such person's presence may not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum for purposes of the vote at the meeting; 6) Such person may not be present during the vote unless the vote is by secret ballot; and 7) Such person's ineligibility to vote should be reflected in the minutes. Additionally, the Employee Code of Conduct applies to all employees, and all employees receive a copy of the Code of Conduct and return an acknowledgement to the HR Department that they understand and will comply with the Code of Conduct. Section 21 of the Personnel Policies sets forth the conflict of interest rules applicable to all employees. It is HCWH's intent to avoid impropriety in all of its decisions and actions. HCWH employees are prohibited from participating in activities that conflict with HCWH's activities or interests. It is impossible to describe all of the situations that might cause or give rise to a conflict of interest. However, in general, employees should not engage in any activity where there is the potential for their professional, financial, or other personal interests to be opposed to the interests of HCWH or where their outside and personal interests might adversely influence their actions and judgments on behalf of HCWH or interfere with their ability to act in the best interests of HCWH. In addition, employees may not use their positions at HCWH for personal benefit, for the benefit of friends or relatives, or to further any outside interests or personal agenda. If a conflict or potential conflict arises, employees under the policy may consult with the Executive Director, their supervisor or Human Resources. If the Executive Director considers a possible conflict of interest exists, they are required to report this to the President.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	HCWH makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, federal Form 990, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
		Form 990, Part VII, Column B: Gary Cohen, Executive Director, who worked an average of 22 hours per week for HCWH also worked an average of 18 hours per week for Practice Greenhealth.
