Part I Summary

Activities & Governance	1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities Providing up to five week enrichment programs in the summer for intellectually gifted children identified as being in at risk environments. The program focuses on 4th to 8th graders and the objective is to complete a 5 year cycle of mentoring, coaching and followup to work towards making a college education and higher career aspirations goals of each climber. The summer programs served 72 climbers in 2011. Jacobs Climber candidates are identified by leaders of gifted programs in Virginia and North Carolina schools. With the cooperation and permission of parents, staff meets with a candidate and begins the process of identifying whether the student has the desire to participate in the enrichment programs and confirming that the profile of the candidate otherwise would meet the qualifications for the program. As indicated by the reports from management in 2011 all Jacobs Climbers graduating from high school in that cycle were accepted to colleges and universities.
