Both Kids R first Programs are basded to help students who receive Free or Reduced Priced Meals in the Public Schools in Northern Virginia area.

School Supplies Program - Students names are confidential, the number of students vary by the total in need per school community. Counselors fill out our form which identifies the school supplies that will be needed when students return to school each fall (Aug. or Sept.). We custom order for each school so student's receive exactly what they need in a back pack.

College and Career Bound Program Fund - For High School Students

Monies are given to high school guidance departments. Each school awards their monies based on criteria set by the Board of Directors of Kids R First. A mini-scholarship may cover costs between $50-$150 per student. Any amount hight than $200 needs approval from the CCB Chair.

Due to the privacy issues, students' names are not revealed but reports are sent to CCB Chair of our organization of the uses and the number of students helped at each of 18 schools.
