Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

leadership position for all areas of librarianship. To do this, the Association works with other professional organizations and professions that are relevant to librarianship; provides increasing opportunities for librarians and support staff in Florida to advance their skills so that they can maintain their effectiveness in the new information age; works closely with the information industry, facilitating productive links with the library community; and continues its role as a legislative advocate for excellence in all types of library services within the State of Florida and beyond.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6: The organization has members who renew membership on an annual basis through payment of membership fees.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a: Per Bylaws, all voting members of the Executive Board (officers and directors) are voted on directly by the membership.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b: Decision-making authority lies within the executive board. Organizational goals, activities and events, purchases and expense payment decisions are all brought before the board and voted on. Nothing moves forward without approval. However, changes in dues rates must be approved by the membership.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The Executive Director and Treasurer reviews the completed Form 990 for accuracy prior to presenting it to the Executive Board. President signs the form authorizing submittal.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: The organization has established Form 12, Conflict of Interest Statement. Board members and committee chairs are required to sign this compliance statement annually; completed forms are on file at the FLA office.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a: Prior to hiring the current Executive Director, a survey was conducted of compensation and duties of other state library association executives. In addition, salaries of library directors in Florida were used as a guide. This information was reviewed by the Human Resources Committee and reported to the Board. The Executive Director salary was reduced in the current year in relation to a reduction in hour per work week.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The organization's bylaws and operating manual (policies and procedures) are available online at www.flalib.org. Other documents are available for review upon request at the FLA office.
