Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Part I Line 2 - Describe in Part IV the organizations procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States.

The Ministry receives updated information from the staff or directors of those ministry organizations as to their ongoing activities and accomplishments in regard to those specific projects. This is accomplished through those ministry's newsletters or magazines and web sites and acknowledgement receipt letters from those ministries who received grants. A record is kept and prior to the annual board meeting a Ministry Review is provided to each Board of Director. This Ministry Review provides an in depth report of each ministry organization's projects, and provides details of the specific purposes and accomplishments. In addition the prior years accomplishments also appears in this annual Ministry Review so as to provide a continuity of the progress and impact of the prior years grants. During the annual board meeting the Ministry Review is reviewed and the Board of Directors express their comments about specific projects. The Board of Directors then give their unanimous approval for the continuation of those projects and any new projects that might arise in the coming year.

Part II Grants and Other Assistance to Governments or Other Organizations in the United States

Line 1 - Metro Ministries AG - Grants for a Ministry Sunday School Outreach that is reaching weekly 42,000 inner city children in N.Y. with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and providing them with love, food, clothes and training in the Christian faith and in turn reach their parents. A grant was provided for the food voucher program that will feed 1,000 of those children.
