Mission Statement 303 Development Foundation Corp

The mission for 303 Development Foundation Corp is to develop the game of baseball and softball for the children in East Africa. It is being done by supporting the Uganda Little League Baseball NGO in Uganda. All funds go to building the program so that it can be self sustaining in the years ahead and will be the seed for expanding the game to adjoining countries and eventually the entire continent of Africa. 303 Development will work with Major League Baseball, Little League Baseball and any other group that has an interest in assisting the children of Africa in developing their athletic talents, especially in the sport of baseball and softball.

Richard Stanley

- The committee, with the help of all friends of baseball, will attempt to have all African Governments remove taxes and duties on donated baseball equipment sent to Little League programs in Africa.
- The committee, with the help of its friends at Little League International and Major League Baseball, will work to reduce the costs of getting donated equipment shipped to African Countries by working with the U.S. Government to render assistance in this area, and hopefully shipping it through the U.S. Embassies.
- As programs develop, we will look to individual Major League Teams to possibly sponsor programs in an African Country. Eventually, even supporting a Baseball Academy in their respective country.
- African Little League Programs will look to use the facilities and skills of the established South African Baseball program for training of coaches and umpires.
- The committee members will work to obtain sponsorships from International Corporations and other agencies and organizations to support the African Program.
- The committee members will seek to arrange cooperative baseball programs through the "Sister Cities" program.
- The committee members will work to get all African Countries to participate in all National and International Tournaments in Africa and throughout the World.
- While the committee now consists of only four members, we encourage all countries who wish to develop Little League Baseball and other baseball programs to join us as active members.
