Part V Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part I, Line 2: Adventive Cross Cultural Initiatives ("ACCI") provides funds to other Christian organizations in order to help expand ACCI's ministry goals around the world. ACCI only provides funds to organizations that demonstrate a common belief in Jesus and a common approach to ministry, as evidenced by those organizations' statements of faith and published ministry objectives. ACCI only provides funds to organizations that are registered nonprofit organizations under their home countries' laws. ACCI only provides funds to organizations with which it enters into written agreements specifying the expectations and duties of both parties. Those agreements contain requirements that the receiving organizations must report to ACCI how all funds are used, and in those agreements, ACCI maintains the right to discontinue the relationship at any time the receiving organization does not comply with the reporting requirements, or if the funds are not used according to ACCI's exempt purposes. ACCI monitors the reports, and when possible, it sends representatives to visit the receiving organizations and report on how funds are being used.

Part I, Line 3, Section (1), Column (e), AND

Part II, Line 1, Section (1), Column (d): ACCI is a "friend of" a Canadian organization that is also called Adventive Cross Cultural Initiatives. The organizations are separate, and each has an independent board of directors, but the organizations work together in many ways. Both send contracted missionaries throughout the world to promote the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and both support similar Christian organizations that share the same beliefs and ministry objectives. Both boards try to meet together, and where possible, the organizations try to utilize resources in the most efficient manner possible. ACCI-Canada sends money to ACCI-US throughout the year to support ACCI-US ministries, and ACCI-US sends money to ACCI-Canada to support its ministries. (As reported elsewhere in this Form 990 and its Schedules, in 2011, ACCI-Canada donated $65,042 to ACCI-US for its ministry projects, and ACCI-US donated $28,519 to ACCI-Canada for its ministry projects. These ministry projects include world-wide evangelism, church planting and support, practical physical support and relief for the poor, and support of other Christian ministries doing similar work in other countries.

Part I, Line 3, Section (2), Column (e): In 2011, ACCI contributed to a Canadian charity that ministered to the homeless and First Nations people in Thunder Bay, Ontario, Canada.

Part I, Line 3, Section (3), Column (e): ACCI is a "friend of" a Christian orphanage and children's center in Ecuador. Several ACCI contracted missionaries have worked with this organization, which provides love, housing, care, and education to orphaned, abandoned, and disabled children.

Part I, Line 3, Section (4), Column (e): ACCI is a "friend of" an Italian nonprofit that provides ministry training and Christian discipleship for Italian church members through regional seminars and classes. ACCI contract missionaries have been instrumental in founding the organization, and in participating in the seminars.

Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part V Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule L (see instructions).

Part IV, Line (1), Columns (b) and (c): Tony Hedrick was a founding member of Adventive Cross Cultural Initiatives ("ACCI") in the US and in Canada. (ACCI-US and ACCI-Canada are separate organizations, each with an independent board of directors.) Tony served on both boards until October of 2007, and he served as Executive Director and as a missionary with both organizations until October of 2007. Tony currently serves as an ACCI-US contracted missionary, promoting and working with ACCI ministry projects in Canada, England, Norway, Italy, and Slovenia. ACCI-US pays Tony for his contracted services based on donations for related projects. In 2011, Tony received $52,242 from ACCI-US for his work, including a single payment of $12,392. (All ACCI contracted missionaries, including Tony, receive monthly payments based on project donations for that month.)

Part IV, Line (2), Columns (b), (c), and (d): As noted above and in various other parts of this Form 990 and its Schedules, ACCI-US and ACCI-Canada share a common history, and cooperate together in many ways, including combined ministry objectives and projects and cooperative planning and fellowship. As noted elsewhere, the two organizations financially support each others' ministries. As noted above, Tony Hedrick was a founding member of both organizations, and served on both boards and as Executive Director of both organizations. Currently, John Haley serves as the Executive Director of both organizations. Each organization's relationship with the other is outlined in their affiliate ministries contract, and that contract also governs transactions between the organizations. Generally, those transactions occur monthly, and involve the transfer of funds between the two organizations for ministry project support. The organizations use a book-recognition system, where donations between the two are offset, with the organization donating the greater amount actually sending the difference to the other organization, but with both organizations recording the total transfers on their books. All transactions, per the contract, must be for ministry purposes, and must be reported to each organization's respective boards.

Each member of the board must then either make comments or suggested changes, or approve the draft. Once the draft is in a form that is approved by all directors, then it is signed and sent to the IRS.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Generally, the board of directors meets once per year. Prior to that meeting, all directors and key contractors receive a copy of the conflict of interest policy, and are asked to report any personal potential or actual conflicts, and any other potential or actual conflicts of which they are aware. Any reported conflicts are discussed at the board meeting, and any persons, that must be absent or abstain from any vote or discussion are accordingly removed at the appropriate time. During the year between board meetings, any potential or actual conflicts are reported to the board via email or other communication, and where applicable, the board may address or otherwise deal with such conflicts according to the policy.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15b: None of the questions in 15a-b apply to ACCI because it has no employees, and none of its executives or officers or directors receive any compensation.
