Part III What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

Aboki International provides humanitarian community-based assistance for the needy and neglected, initially focusing on rural northeast Nigeria. Our programs reflect our efforts to alleviate hunger, provide medical assistance, and sponsor literacy training, education, and community development. We seek to enable individuals and communities to find solutions in adverse conditions. Our current program beneficiaries are members of a population that lack access to education, water, health care and proper sanitation due to widespread poverty. Our humanitarian efforts are provided in the context of ethnic, religious and communal tensions that sometimes erupt in violence.
