The Library's conversion of their accounting records to a computerized system utilizing fund accounting has taken considerably longer than expected, plus the Secretary/Treasurer had a fire in their home and many of the records were destroyed or damaged and had to be reconstructed, which along with other unexpected problems caused considerable delay in getting the accounting records to the Library's accountant and he has had continuing health problems related to his asthma which prevented him from getting to them as quickly as hoped once he received the information. Both the library and their accountant are doing everything they can to get the library's tax returns caught up and now that the accounting records are computerized it is hoped that in the future we will be able to provide our accountant the information he needs to complete the audit and tax returns in a more timely manner.
