	Alliance for Choices in Education (ACE) advocates for educational programs that give parents choices & provides info to members & others. Our work benefits over 25,000 students attending choice schools & results in other benefits to Milwaukee and Wisconsin, including public school improvement. ACE spent time in 2011 undertaking strategic planning during which a decision was made to focus its advocacy efforts on private school choice only. In prior years, ACE performed some advocacy for charters and partnership schools in addition to advocacy for private choice schools. ACE suspended fundraising during this time of strategic planning.
