PNCE carefully monitors all grants awarded in any fiscal year. While not an ongoing program activity, PNCE periodically finds it advantageous to work closely with other 501C3 organizations and provides grants for this purpose. The recipient is required to submit regular activity and financial reports to document and substantiate their progress throughout the entire grant award period. Since the organizations work very closely on the specific activity, they are in regular contact and maintain professional standards of conduct and best practices in their respective dealings.

P6, Part VI, Section A. Governing Body and Management

Line 11. The 990 is made available to all board members in an electronic format prior to its filing. Board members are encouraged to review the 990 and its financial and narrative material for the current year filing. The 990 is reviewed with agency personnel prior to its dissemination to the board, to ensure accuracy with all financial and programmatic material presented.

P6, Part VI, Section B. Policies

Line 15. The process for determining compensation for top management and key employees of the organization included a number of areas of analysis and review. The agency executive director and finance director work together to secure non profit salary survey information from a variety of non profit sources, along with and other sector trend and agency data as available, to develop a salary range for executive, management and staff salaries. This data, along with the agency's salary history, form the basis for compensation arrangements.

Line 12c: Conflict of interest disclosure: The agency maintains a board policy manual that is provided to all new board members.

All new members receive a board orientation to fully explain the roles and responsibilities of each member. The board chair and executive director work closely together to ensure compliance with the policy. The board chair regularly makes inquiry about potential conflicts of interest with respective board members.

P6, Part VI, Section C. Disclosure

Line 19. The organization complies with all public disclosure requirements for its organizing (1023) and financial (990) documents. These documents are available for review and download on the public web-site of guidestar.org. In the event that people are unable to access the web-site for download, the agency will provide its public documents upon request.

The organization will comply with written requests for these documents and will make efforts to fulfill such requests within 10 business days of the receipt of the request. The organization does not share its internal policy documents or its internal financial statements with the general public.

ProgressNow Colorado Education

The Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose is to provide a strong, credible voice in advancing progressive solutions to critical community issues.

Summary of program activities Accomplishments in 2011

- Trainings - PNCE trained more than 30 nonprofit organizations on the intricacies and benefits of social media. Additionally, PNCE trained more than 20 other organizations on messaging strategy and how to develop effective and concise messages.
- Tweet the Leg - At the beginning of 2011, Twitter wasn't being utilized by most progressive groups or the media in Colorado. ProgressNow Colorado created the hash tag #coleg for Colorado's 2011 legislative session and then trained more than 35 groups and hundreds of people how to tweet and utilize Twitter to drive the conversation during the session.
- Boom or Bust Colorado - PNCE took the lead with several partners to break down complicated fiscal jargon into plain English and create a public awareness campaign about the issue. As part of this effort, PNCE launched Boom or Bust Colorado, an earned and new media strategy to explain the Colorado budget.

Thanks Obamacare – In collaboration with partners, PNCE launched a social media campaign to educate the public about the positive impact of the Affordable Care Act.
