Form 990 Part I	1	This is a time of profound challenge and opportunity. Our challenges reach the very heart of our community. Enrollment is rising 18 since 2008. And yet, 57 of the population of San Antonio over the age of 25 lacks a bachelors degree, associates degree, or some college. About 23 of adults over the age of 25 lack a high school diploma. Regional employers are eliminating many low and medium-skill jobs, while experiencing shortages in qualified workers in new high-tech fields. Employers consistently cite educational attainment and technical skill as key workforce challenges. All state agencies are facing unprecedented fiscal cuts over the next several years. The Alamo Colleges have effectively responded to the new fiscal reality by strategically improving performance and reducing per-student costs.

Form 990 Part I	1	The Alamo Colleges serve over 100,000 annual credit and non-credit students, more than all the other higher education institutions in Bexar County combined. Based on these numbers, the Alamo Colleges has a tremendous role in the growth and future of the San Antonio region. The importance of private support has grown more essential if we are to continue as the number one educational services provider in the region. To accomplish the goal of providing the education that is necessary for the success of our citizens and our communities, the following must be achieved: 1. increase access to education by funding annual and endowed scholarships, 2. enhance the academic experience and workforce skills training, and 3. engage our community in building partnerships and capacity for service and learning.
